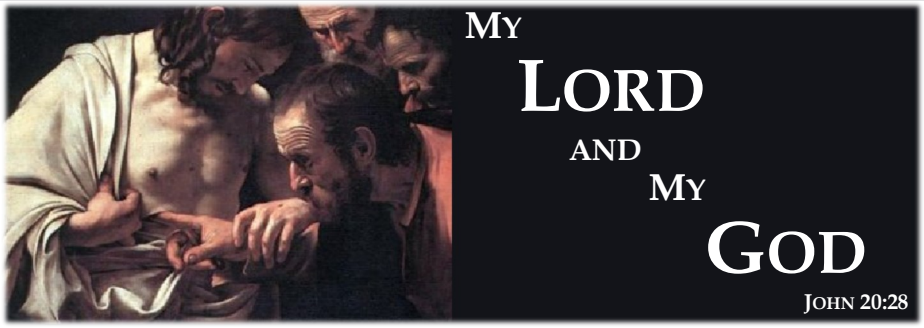
Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest



We are healed and saved by the wounds of Jesus, by His pains and sorrows, His agony on the cross, and ultimately His dying for us, because it is from touching His wounds and feeling His pain that we can understand God Himself, who has indeed come to be with us, not only in spirit, but also as the suffering servant and our Risen Lord.

Jesus has come to share our joy and our pain and He himself has come to stay. He wants us to know that God Himself shares the vulnerability of ordinary human beings.

And so what Jesus says to Thomas are words of love and also of vulnerability, which, of course, is the only way of love. The pains and difficulties and troubles along the way are only the gateways to the peace and joy of everlasting life with Jesus which is given to us here and now!"

We close with the words of St Peter :

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for us all."

Canon Antoine Boucheron

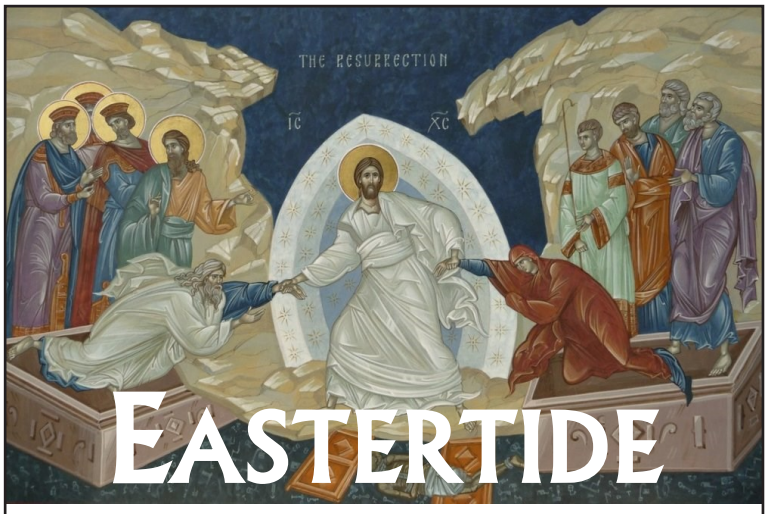
Welcome to Our Church



EASTERTIDE

Easter is the feast of feasts, the solemnity of solemnities, as it is on this day that the mission of the Word Incarnate attains the triumphant goal – man is raised up from his fall and regains what he had lost by Adam's sin.

The Resurrection of Christ is the best proof of His divinity, the strongest seal of His doctrines, and the keystone of our redemption and pledge of bodily resurrection. Salvation comes not from the cross alone but through Christ's resurrection, and God regains creation, as it was from the beginning. This anniversary is the holiest of days since it opens to us the gate of Heaven into which we shall enter because we have risen together with Christ – the Church had us come well prepared through bodily mortification and compunction of heart, unless we were lax and indifferent to the season of penitence.

Eastertide contains three manifestations of divine love and power – the Resurrection, the Ascension, and Pentecost. The first week of Easter is traditionally a time of great joy – fasts are discontinued. Jesus will be with us for another 40 days. But the joy continues right through the 50 days of the season until Pentecost. Christ, upon His Ascension will not leave us orphans because He promised us the Holy Ghost.

Easter will follow Easter and bring us at last to that Easter in heaven which is for all eternity: "Grant to thy servants, O God, that they may keep up, by their manner of living, the Mystery they have received by believing!" – Collect for Tuesday in Easter Week.

Let us walk now and forever in the newness of life, the life of grace we have received.

Have a happy and blessed Eastertide.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

About the Feast day "Divine Mercy Sunday", Jesus said "…tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.... Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy". (Diary 699)

The plenary indulgence is granted (under the usual conditions of a sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and a prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on Divine Mercy Sunday, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, recite the Our Father and the Creed, and add a devout prayer (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!).
