INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

Jesus Christ has founded the Catholic Church in order to pass on His teachings to a world so desperately in need of truth and in order to lead all men to heaven. Are you a non-Catholic interested in becoming a Catholic? Do you know a non-Catholic or a lapsed Catholic who has questions about the Catholic faith? If you would like to learn more about the claims and teachings of the Catholic Church, please contact the Rector by phone or e-mail in order to set up a meeting. There is nothing to lose, and eternity to gain!

ON THE CELEBRATION OF CORPUS CHRISTI
by Father Fredrick William Faber (1814-1863)

O the joy of the immense glory the Church is sending up to God at this hour: verily! as if the world was all unfallen still. We think, and as we think the thoughts are like so many successive tide-waves filling our whole souls with the fullness of delight, of all the thousands of Masses which are being said or sung the whole world over, and all rising with one note of blissful acclamation, from grateful creatures, to the Majesty of our merciful Creator. How many glorious processions, with the sun upon their banners, are now winding their way round the squares of mighty cities, through the flower-strewn streets of Christian villages, through the antique cloisters of the glorious cathedral, or through the grounds of the seminary, where the various colours of the faces, and the different languages of the people are only so many fresh tokens of the unity of that faith which they are all exultingly professing in the single voice of the magnificent ritual of Rome! Upon how many altars of various architecture, amid sweet flowers and starry lights, amid clouds of humble incense, and the tumult of thrilling song, before thousands of prostrate worshippers, is the Blessed Sacrament raised for exposition, or taken down for benediction! And how many blessed acts of faith and love, of triumph and of reparation, do not each of these things surely represent! The world over, the summer air is filled with the voice of song. The gardens are shorn of their fairest blossoms, to be flung beneath the feet of the Sacramental God. The steeples are reeling with the clang of bells; the cannon are booming in the gorges of the Andes and the Appenines; the ships of the harbours are painting the bays of the sea with their show of gaudy flags; the pomp of royal or republican armies salutes the King of kings. The Pope on his throne, and the school-girl in her village, cloistered nuns, and sequestered hermits, bishops and dignitaries and preachers, emperors and kings and princes, all are engrossed to-day with the Blessed Sacrament.

PROPER ATTIRE IN CHURCH

Now that the warmer weather has returned, a gentle timely reminder about the importance of coming to church modestly and decently dressed. This is a concrete way to honor the dignity of God's house, where Our Lord dwells in the tabernacle. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty. Gentlemen and boys are encouraged to wear slacks (no shorts, please) and a dress shirt. Ladies' and girls' dresses or skirts should fall below the knee; the apostolic tradition of covering the head in church is very strongly encouraged. Thank you for expressing your love for God's house and edifying your neighbor by your respectful demeanor in church.

First Holy Communion & Procession

Eight children from the Oratory will receive holy communion for the first time today. May Jesus guard you and keep you. Congratulations on this important milestone.

After Mass everyone is invited to join in the Eucharistic procession, by following behind the canopy with the Blessed Sacrament.

After Benediction, the first communicants will be enrolled in the brown scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.
