INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Trusting in Jesus in the midst of our fears

The apostles were anxious in the boat because they were paying more attention to the waves and to the winds around them than to the presence of Jesus with them in the boat. The same thing happens with us. This scene is a reminder to us of the need to focus more on Christ than on our problems.

This is the mark of a life of faith. Jesus turns to us in the midst of whatever hardship we are experiencing, and with regard to our most basic human fears, and says, "Why are you terrified, O you of little faith?" To believe in Him means not just to trust in His power, but to have faith in His goodness and love and that that goodness and love endures into eternity.

Let's keep the faith and work on our salvation and we will win! God will always have the last say.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Feast of Saint Blaise Sacramental of the Blessing of Throats Feb. 3 following the 8:00 a.m. Mass

The Feast of the Purification of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary

Holy Mass 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.
Wednesday, February 2

Wednesday is the feast of the Purification of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary and the Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple forty days after His birth. It is also a feast of His Blessed Mother who submitted herself to the rite of purification of mothers after having given birth. She did this out of humility, though she knew that she was still a virgin.

This feast is also called Candlemas Day because on this day there is an ancient tradition, the blessing of candles as a sign of Christ as the light of the world, according to the prophecy of Old Simeon.

We contemplate the Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple every time we say the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary. This feast concludes the Christmas season with a joyous note: It is Jesus' childhood. But, it also has a sacrificial note because Jesus comes into the Temple to be offered to His Father as a victim for sin. The prophecy of Simeon celebrates the light that Jesus brings to the world. Light here means God's truth and the lighted candles today commemorate these words of the prophet. Because this light dwells in us, our mission is to be a shining light in the darkness of the world.

The liturgy invites us to meet Christ in the House of God where we will find Him in Holy Communion. At each Mass, we offer ourselves with Jesus to the Father, just as He did in the Temple. As Simeon held Jesus, Jesus was holding Simeon in His salvation just as He holds each one of us. The prophetic prayer of Simeon is appropriate to include in prayers after receiving Holy Communion; the Lord puts us at peace. Here at the altar, our eyes see His salvation, we receive Him and we are able to depart from the altar at peace.

Happy feast day!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE PRIESTHOOD

Virgin Mary, Mother of Christ-Priest, Mother of all the priests of the whole world, you have a particular love for priests, because they are the living images of your unique Son.

You helped Jesus throughout your life on earth, and you help him still in Heaven.

We implore you: Pray for priests!
"Pray to the Father that he send laborers to the harvest"

Pray that we always have priests, who will give us the Sacraments, explain to us Christ's Gospel, and teach us to become true children of God!

Virgin Mary, ask God yourself for the priests of whom we have such need; and since your Heart as such power over him, Obtain for us, O Mary, priests that are saints!

Amen!

SPECIAL APPEAL FROM CANON

Dear Parishioners,

Once again, I need your special help. You have all been so very generous with our congregation that I find it almost embarrassing to even ask for more help. But currently I am facing very costly repairs to the car I inherited and have been driving these last several years. I have added 170,000 miles to it since being assigned to St. Patrick's. But given the age and mileage on the car, it's time for a new one.

It's quite an unexpected and extraordinary expense, but a car is a necessary tool for a priest today. The next vehicle will remain the property of St. Patrick's Oratory, as has been in the past.

Thank you for your generosity and understanding.

Your donations should be in an envelope marked "Car for Canon" and placed in the collection baskets.
