SUMMER ACTIVITIES WITH THE INSTITUTE

National Sursum Corda – Annual Retreat
August 10-13, 2018

Sursum Corda is a nationwide initiative to foster the spiritual lives of the young adults in the apostolates of the Institute of Christ the King. For the seventh year in a row, Sursum Corda is offering a social and spiritual weekend for young people ages 18 and up.

The program includes daily Mass, prayer in common and opportunity for confession, faith formation classes and discussions, and other social activities for young men and women, under the leadership of Canons of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest.

The event will be held on the beautiful grounds of Mundelein Seminary just north of Chicago. This year's admission fee is $250, which includes lodging and meals.

TO REGISTER, VISIT: institute-christ-king.org

PROPER ATTIRE IN CHURCH

Now that summer is here, a gentle reminder about the importance of coming to church modestly and decently dressed. This is a concrete way to honor the dignity of God's house, where Our Lord dwells in the tabernacle. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty. Gentlemen and boys are encouraged to wear slacks (no shorts, please) and a dress shirt. Ladies' and girls' dresses or skirts should fall below the knee; the apostolic tradition of covering the head in church is very strongly encouraged. Thank you for expressing your love for God's house and edifying your neighbor by your respectful demeanor in church.

ORATORY INCOME

June 10 - Third Sunday after Pentecost
$4114.54

Building Fund

CELL PHONES

As a courtesy to others, please remember to put your cell phones on "church mode" (off or low vibrate) when you come into church. Thank you for your cooperation.

NEW SINGERS WELCOME!

"Sing to the Lord!" The choir provides a perfect opportunity to express the praises of Almighty God. Our choir director, Mr. Sean Scozzare, is looking for more singers who would like to join the choir. If you are interested, please contact Mr. Scozzare at oldstpatchoir@gmail.com.

Wisdom from St. Francis de Sales:

"Why do we get so upset by the failings we commit publicly? Is it not a good thing that we are known for what we truly are?"

—St. Francis de Sales

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

Jesus Christ has founded the Catholic Church in order to pass on His teachings to a world so desperately in need of truth and in order to lead all men to heaven. Are you a non-Catholic interested in becoming a Catholic? Do you know a non-Catholic or a lapsed Catholic who has questions about the Catholic faith? If you would like to learn more about the claims and teachings of the Catholic Church, please contact the Rector by phone or e-mail in order to set up a meeting. There is nothing to lose, and eternity to gain!

Pope Pius XII on the Sacred Heart

The mystery of the divine redemption is primarily and by its very nature a mystery of love, that is, of the perfect love of Christ for His heavenly Father to Whom the sacrifice of the Cross, offered in a spirit of love and obedience, presents the most abundant and infinite satisfaction due for the sins of the human race; "By suffering out of love and obedience, Christ gave more to God than was required to compensate for the offense of the whole human race" (St. Thomas, III, q. 48, a. 2).

It is also a mystery of the love of the Most Holy Trinity and of the divine Redeemer towards all men. Because they were entirely unable to make adequate satisfaction for their sins, Christ, through the infinite treasure of His merits acquired for us by the shedding of His precious Blood, was able to restore completely that pact of friendship between God and man which had been broken, first by the grievous fall of Adam in the earthly paradise and then by the countless sins of the chosen people.

Since our divine Redeemer as our lawful and perfect Mediator, out of His ardent love for us, restored complete harmony between the duties and obligations of the human race and the rights of God, He is therefore responsible for the existence of that wonderful reconciliation of divine justice and divine mercy which constitutes the sublime mystery of our salvation. On this point the Angelic Doctor wisely comments: "That man should be delivered by Christ's Passion was in keeping with both His mercy and His justice. With His justice, because by His Passion Christ made satisfaction for the sins of the human race, and so man was set free by Christ's justice; and with His mercy, for since man of himself could not satisfy for the sin of all human nature, God gave him His Son to satisfy for him. And this came of a more copious mercy than if he had forgiven sins without satisfaction: Hence St. Paul says: 'God, who is rich in mercy, by reason of His very great love wherewith He has loved us even when we were dead by reason of our sins, brought us to life together with Christ.'" (…)

For these reasons, the Heart of the Incarnate Word is deservedly and rightly considered the chief sign and symbol of that threefold love with which the divine Redeemer unceasingly loves His eternal Father and all mankind. It is a symbol of that divine love which He shares with the Father and the Holy Spirit but which He, the Word made flesh, alone manifests through a weak and perishable body, since "in Him dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily." It is, besides, the symbol of that burning love which, infused into His soul, enriches the human will of Christ and enlightens and governs its acts by the most perfect knowledge derived both from the beatific vision and that which is directly infused. And finally—and this in a more natural and direct way—it is the symbol also of sensible love, since the body of Jesus Christ, formed by the Holy Spirit, in the womb of the Virgin Mary, possesses full powers of feelings and perception, in fact, more so than any other human body.

FATHER'S DAY TRIDUUM OF MASSES

The Oratory is offering a Triduum (3 days) of Masses beginning June 17th and ending next Tuesday. To enroll your father in the Triduum, fill out his name (please indicate whether he is living or deceased) on the Father's Day envelopes and include an offering. The envelopes may be placed in the basket at the Offertory collection. Your father's intentions will then be remembered in the Masses during the Triduum. There are also cards on the back table which you may insert into your Father's Day cards. This is a great opportunity to thank him for all the wonderful things he has done for you and to pray for him.

Bonfire and Chilli Contest
