Keeping the True Catholic Faith by St. Vincent de Lerins (†434)

"Now in the Catholic Church itself we take the greatest care to hold that which has been believed everywhere, always and by all. That is truly and properly Catholic, as is shown by the very force and meaning of the word, which comprehends everything almost universally. We shall hold to this rule if we follow universality, antiquity, and consent by all. 1) We shall follow universality if we acknowledge that one Faith to be true which the whole Church throughout the world confesses; 2) antiquity if we in no wise depart from those interpretations which it is clear that our ancestors and fathers proclaimed; 3) and consent, if in antiquity itself, we keep following the definitions and opinions of all, or certainly nearly all, Bishops and Doctors alike. ....But what if some novel contagions try to infect the whole Church, and not merely a tiny part of it? Then he will take care to cleave to antiquity, which cannot now be led astray by any deceit of novelty....And whatever he shall find to have been held, approved and taught, not by one or two only but by all equally and with one consent, openly, frequently, and persistently, let him take this as to be held by him without the slightest hesitation."

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted each and every day from Nov 1 to Nov 8, those who devoutly visit a cemetery and there pray, if only mentally, for the departed.

A plenary indulgence is granted the faithful who, on All Souls Day, devoutly visit a church or an oratory and recite an Our Father and the Creed. (Grants 29 1.1 & 2)

"It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins." (2 Macch. 12, 46)

From the Rector's Desk

Dear Faithful,

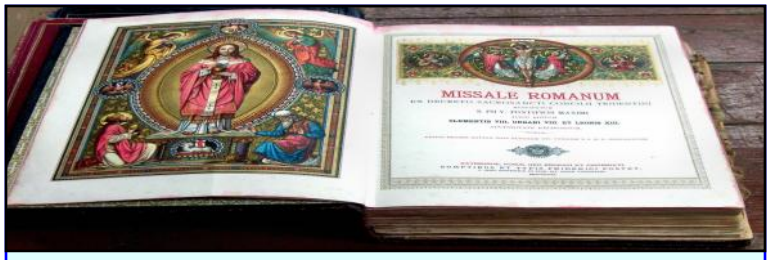
You will probably notice many projects recently completed around church thanks to our generous volunteers and workers. The parking lot which was resurfaced last fall was sealed again to protect it for another 3-5 years. Church sanctuary doors were varnished, church interior light bulbs were replaced, our palm trees were trimmed and new flowers were planted, iron doors were repaired and repainted, the social hall exterior door was readjusted and repainted, the choir loft rugs were deep cleaned and new tapestries were hung, pews and church doors were polished, beautiful curtains were hung in the Hall, new curtains are being made for the rectory, brass and silver candlesticks and Crucifixes are being polished, new side altars and linens are being made, and more to continue!!!!

Many thanks also to all the volunteers who have already spent so many weeks and months in preparing for the Convocation itself: food, hospitality, altars and linens, decorations and rentals, cleaning, and transportation. Thank you!

Many thanks to the faithful souls who came out to pray the Rosary at our Public Square Rosary last Saturday! Our Lord and Our Lady are being pushed out of society, out of government, out of families, and the policies of sin and darkness are being imposed violently. Thank you for making a public witness of your Faith!

Also, many thanks to those who joined me last Sunday after our Adult Catechism session to prayerfully, quietly, and yet boldly stand up for the sanctity of all human life as we protested a neighborhood Planned Parenthood fundraiser. You generously gave of your free Sunday afternoon to stand up for All Human Beings. You stood up for those who will never see the light of day. You risked being mocked and ridiculed, being called hypocrites by simply praying the Rosary. You remembered: "Blessed are ye when they shall revile you, and persecute you, and speak all that is evil against you, untruly for my sake. Be glad and rejoice, for your reward is very great in heaven." (Mt.5:11) Thank you for witnessing your Faith with me and praying for an end to abortion! God also gave us proof of the power of prayer with the conversion of an angry man who went from being our biggest reviler to an apologetic friend without any words from any of us. We were witnesses to how fast God can convert a hardened sinner simply by the power of the Holy Rosary!

Canon Jonathon Fehrenbacher



Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Ps. 77: 1 I am the salvation of the people, saith the Lord: in whatever tribulation they shall cry to Me, I will hear them; and I will be their Lord for ever. (Ps) Attend, O My people, to My law; incline your ears to the words of My mouth. Glory be. I am the salvation...

COLLECT: Almighty, merciful, and forgiving God, remove everything that might hinder us: and thus freed in body and soul, may we with full liberty seek Thy will. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Eph 4: 23-28 A reading from the Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians

Brethren: Be ye renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, who according to God is created in justice and holiness of truth. Wherefore putting away lying, speak ye the truth every man with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry, and sin not. Let not the sun go down upon your anger. Give not place to the devil. He that stole, let him now steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have something to give to him that suffereth need.

GRADUAL: Ps. 140: 2 Let my prayer be directed as incense in Thy sight, O Lord. The lifting up of my hands as evening sacrifice.

ALLELUIA: Ps. 104: 1 Alleluia, alleluia. Give glory to the Lord, and call upon His name: declare His deeds among the Gentiles. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mt. 22: 1-4 +Continuation of the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

At that time, Jesus spoke to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying: The Kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who made a marriage for his son; and he sent his servants, to call them that were invited to the marriage, and they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying: Tell them that were invited: Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my beeves and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready; come ye to the marriage. But they neglected: and went their ways, one to his farm, and another to his merchandise; and the rest laid hands on his servants, and having treated them contumeliously, put them to death. But when the king had heard of it, he was angry; and sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he saith to his servants: The marriage indeed is ready, but they that were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, call to the marriage. And his servants going forth into the ways, gathered together all that they found, both bad and good; and the marriage was filled with guests. And the king went in to see the guests; and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment: and he saith to him: Friend, how camest thou in hither not having on a wedding garment? But he was silent. Then the king said to the waiters: Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 137: 7 If I shall walk in the midst of tribulation, Thou wilt quicken me, O Lord; and Thou wilt stretch forth Thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies; and Thy right hand shall save me.

SECRET: Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that these gifts, which we offer in the sight of Thy Majesty, may be for our salvation. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Ps. 118: 4-5 Thou hast commanded Thy commandments to be kept most diligently: O that my ways may be directed to keep Thy justifications.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy healing grace, O Lord, mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, and always make us cleave to Thy commandments. Through our Lord.

"Say the Rosary every day to obtain peace for the world. And after each decade say the following prayer:

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to heaven especially those in most need of Thy mercy."
