SAFETY REMINDER

It was brought to our attention that a potential tragic accident was nearly avoided on Sunday. Several parishioner children ran into the street between parked cars on 5th Street causing a passing vehicle to make an abrupt stop.

Parents PLEASE be watchful of your children both in the parking lots and along the streets protecting tham from a vehicle impact.

Additionally, always be aware of your surroundings making sure your children are not left unattended.

In today's world, we must all be vigiliant to protect our families.

FIRST COMMUNION

First Communion will be celebrated on Sunday, August 2nd at the 10:00 am High Mass!

St. Bonaventure

Tuesday, July 14th, is the feast day of St. Bonaventure. In our church, he is represented by a medallion behind the choir on the gospel side.

St. Bonaventure is a doctor of the Church, from the 13th century. He lead the Franciscan order for 17 years and is sometimes referred to as its second founder. Among the many books which he wrote, is the biography of St. Francis.

Return to Public Mass Information

Per decree of the Archbishop of Milwaukee, Sunday public Masses have returned to St. Stanislaus. The following restrictions must be observed.

Each public Mass is allowed 25% of the church's legal seating capacity. Therefore, 112 parishioners will be allowed at each Mass.

Each priest is allowed to celebrate 3 Masses per day. 6 Masses will be celebrated every Sunday at St. Stanislaus. Low Masses: 6am, 7am, 8am, 11:30 am and 5pm. High Mass 10 am.

Social distancing practices will be observed by parishioners inside the church.

It is very important to follow the directions of the ushers once inside the church.

Confessions will be heard inside the church in a designated area as the smaller confessionals have been prohibited.

It will be important to exit the church promptly after each Mass so cleaning teams can prepare the church for the next Mass.

All parishioners will be required to sign up for the Mass of their choice every Sunday on St. Stanislaus website or Facebook, or other social media. All Mass attendees will need to present their paper ticket or cell phone reservation at the church entrances. Without your reservation ticket, you will regretfully not be admitted.

Daily Mass

All daily Masses are now PUBLIC MASSES! We will continue with a capacity of 25% (112 people) and utilize "social distancing".
