Annual Missionary Visit

Every summer, the diocese organizes an appeal by visiting missionaries. On July 22nd we will be visited by lay volunteers from "A Simple House," an outreach to the poor. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Eckstine and their family will have a stand in the narthex with information about their mission work. They have submitted the following account of the work their family has been doing with the poor of Nicaragua:

Our family, Mark and Lora and 7 of our children, have been living alongside Nicaraguans with the plan of answering the recent popes' call to increase lay activity in the area of grey economy in developing nations. We had to leave recently because right now in Nicaragua, our fellow brothers and sisters are experiencing incredible civil unrest. The Catholic Church is strong there with the bishops supporting the people's desire for freedom and justice. The situation became too dangerous for our family, but we still desire to help them with relief efforts. We have two men that we have employed, one who is the overseer to help give work to men on a rotating basis to help them in their time of need. Our relief efforts include water delivery, care packages with basics like rice, beans, sugar, and oil. We have also been able to have food delivered through our workers to the elderly and those in jail. Please consider helping us help them by donating to A Simple House Nicaragua.

Church Parking

Please note that the church parking lot is only available after 5:00 p.m. from Monday to Friday. Please use street parking for morning Masses.

BUILDING FUND UPDATE:

Tuck-pointing on the bell towers and north side of the church is badly needed. In addition, the stone on the front of the church needs to be sealed. Please consider special gifts to the Building Fund to help out with these extra expenses. Thank you to all who have responded.

The remaining debt for the restoration of Old St. Patrick Oratory is currently $404,341. At this time we are making combined principal/interest payments of just under $9,000 each month.

If you would like to make a contribution, please fill out a Building Fund envelope and place it in the offering basket.

SAINT PATRICK, PRAY FOR US!

CELL PHONES

As a courtesy to others, please remember to put your cell phones on "church mode" (off or low vibrate) when you come into church. Thank you for your cooperation.

NEW SINGERS WELCOME!

"Sing to the Lord!" The choir provides a perfect opportunity to express the praises of Almighty God. Our choir director, Mr. Sean Scozzare, is looking for more singers who would like to join the choir. If you are interested, please contact Mr. Scozzare at oldstpatchoir@gmail.com.

Wisdom from St. Francis de Sales:

"In our conversations we should treat one another with fairness. See that you speak only when necessary, giving others an opportunity to speak."

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

Jesus Christ has founded the Catholic Church in order to pass on His teachings to a world so desperately in need of truth and in order to lead all men to heaven. Are you a non-Catholic interested in becoming a Catholic? Do you know a non-Catholic or a lapsed Catholic who has questions about the Catholic faith? If you would like to learn more about the claims and teachings of the Catholic Church, please contact the Rector by phone or e-mail in order to set up a meeting. There is nothing to lose, and eternity to gain!

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

from the Roman Breviary for July 16th

Here is a story to the effect that many men who had kept a tradition of the holy Prophets Elijah and Elisha, were made ready by the preaching of John the Baptist to hail the coming of the Messiah, and that, when the Apostles having been filled with the Spirit upon the holy day of Pentecost, spake with divers tongues and worked miracles by calling upon the Name of Jesus which is above every other name, these men, seeing and being assured of the truth, straightway embraced the faith of the Gospel, and that on account of their singular love toward the Most Blessed Virgin, whose conversation and friendship they were able to enjoy, they paid her the respect of building her a little Chapel, the first which was ever raised in honour of this same most pure Maiden, and which stood upon that part of Mount Carmel whence the servant of Elijah had in old days espied that manifest type of the Virgin, the little cloud like a man's hand, arising out of the sea (III Kings 18:44).

Now to this new Chapel they repaired oftentimes day by day, and in their sacred ceremonies, prayers, and praises, honoured the most blessed Virgin as the particular Guardian of their Congregation. For this reason they came to be everywhere called the Brethren of Blessed Mary, of Mount Carmel, and the Supreme Pontiffs have not only confirmed to them the right to use this name, but have granted particular indulgences to all those who so call either the Order itself, or any particular member thereof. Her name and protection are not the only gifts which the most bountiful Virgin hath given them yea, she hath given them the badge of the Holy Scapular, which she delivered to the Blessed Englishman Simon Stock, even an heavenly garment whereby this Holy Order is marked, and harnessed against all assaults. Moreover, in old times, when this Order was unknown in Europe, and not a few were instant with Honorius III to put an end to it, the most gracious Virgin Mary appeared by night to the said Honorius, and flatly commanded him to show kindness to the Order and to the men belonging thereto.

Many godly persons believe that it is not in this world only that the most blessed Virgin hath marked with her favour this Order which pleaseth her so well, but that in the next world, where her power and mercy have a freer scope than here, they who belong to the Guild of the Scapular, who have practised an easy abstinence, have been regular in reciting a few prayers enjoined to them, and have kept chastity according to their state of life, are comforted by her motherly love while they are being cleansed in the fire of Purgatory, and by her help are borne forward towards their home in heaven more quickly than others. The Order loaded with so many and so great gifts, hath instituted a solemn Commemoration of the Most Blessed Virgin, to be made year after year, in perpetual observance, for the glory of the same Virgin.

PROPER ATTIRE IN CHURCH

Now that summer is here, a gentle reminder about the importance of coming to church modestly and decently dressed. This is a concrete way to honor the dignity of God's house, where Our Lord dwells in the tabernacle. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty. Gentlemen and boys are encouraged to wear slacks (no shorts, please) and a dress shirt. Ladies' and girls' dresses or skirts should fall below the knee; the apostolic tradition of covering the head in church is very strongly encouraged. Thank you for expressing your love for God's house and edifying your neighbor by your respectful demeanor in church.

Solemn Vespers & Benediction

TODAY

Sunday July 15th

5:30 p.m.

Vespers is the evening hour of the Divine Office, the Church's daily cycle of liturgical prayer. Sunday Vespers is an important part of the public worship of God.

Brown Scapular Enrollment

Have you not yet been enrolled in the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel?

An enrollment will be held after both Masses today Sunday July 15th (the day before the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel).

Notice from the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph
