The Feast of Corpus Christi

"I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever; and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, for the life of the world." (John 6:51-52)

This week, we celebrate one of the great feasts of the Church, the Feast of Corpus Christi (the Body of Christ). Although, from the very beginning, Christians venerated the Blessed Sacrament, a special feast in celebration of the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar was not instituted until the 13th century. At that time, a devout Norbertine canoness, Juliana of Liège in Belgium, developed a special veneration for the Blessed Sacrament and longed for a feast day in Its honor. Juliana petitioned Hugh of St. Cher and Robert de Thorete, Bishop of Liège, to institute a celebration in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Inspired by a procession to Orvieto in 1263, where a Eucharistic miracle had taken place, Pope Urban IV instituted the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, with its solemn procession, on the Thursday after Pentecost. With the revision of the Roman Calendar following the Council of Trent, the Feast of Corpus Christi was moved to the Thursday following the Feast of the Holy Trinity.

Corpus Christi is characterized by a solemn procession in which the Blessed Sacrament is carried for veneration by the faithful. This solemn procession was instituted in order to increase faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The belief in the actual presence of Our Lord in the Sacred Host, which has always been held by Christians, is a hallmark of Catholic Faith. This reality is, however, denied by Protestants and even by some in the Church today. Unfortunately, in part through lack of proper catechesis, many Catholics no longer believe in the Real Presence and no longer reverence the Blessed Sacrament in a manner due the actual presence of Our Lord among us. In the great Eucharistic discourse in the sixth chapter of John as well as in the words of Institution of the Holy Eucharist on Maundy Thursday, Our Lord, Himself, testifies to the reality of this great gift of His Body and Blood to us and, by His very own words, precludes any symbolic or figurative interpretation.

The great miracle is that we do not see the actual Body and Blood of Christ, yet the reality is amply demonstrated by the many Eucharistic miracles which have taken place through the centuries, right up to our own times. Available on the Internet is an awe-inspiring resource to be found at www.therealpresence.org, a website which catalogs the world's Eucharistic miracles which have been approved by the Vatican.
