INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Testing or Trusting God?

The more we fast and place spiritual nourishment over material food, the less vulnerable we will be to be tempted by bread and other earthly pleasures. The more we sacrifice ourselves and our belongings for the good of others, the less prone we will be to giving in to the devil's seductions to give us power or control over others.

The more we pray to God and seek to know and do his will in our lives the less assailable we will be to the devil's traps presumptuously to force God's hand. These three traditional practices of Lent are a great remedy, a merciful medicine, to the temptations of the Evil One, which is why the Church proposes them to us each year. And that's why we need to make bold resolutions in Lent with regard to all three. St. Paul wrote, "In order to be able to stand against the wiles of the devil, put on the whole armor of God."

Prayer, fasting and almsgiving help us to do just that, because they help us to "put on Christ" (Rom 13:14), who himself prayed unceasingly, who fasted for 40 days, who gave himself until his last drop of blood.

Lent is an annual spiritual desert boot camp the Church gives us so that we might train, yet again, to be victorious in this most important battle we'll ever fight.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

St. Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274) was born into a wealthy and noble family in Aquino, Italy. He was the pious and brilliant son of a count, and a lucrative future was planned for him. When Thomas set off to enter the newly founded Dominican order to be a poor mendicant friar, his mother held him prisoner in the family castle in order to dissuade him. His brothers tried to destroy his purity, and thus his vocation, by tempting him with a prostitute. However Thomas resisted and turned to God for help; as a result, angels were sent to guard and preserve his chastity. This long ordeal only strengthened his vocation, and eventually he escaped and joined the Dominicans. He was ordained to the priesthood and went on to become a famed professor and prolific writer. His works remain immensely influential in philosophy and theology, the most famous being his Summa Theologica, and multiple popes have upheld him as the model of a systematic Catholic education. St. Thomas Aquinas is the foremost Doctor of the Catholic Church, known as the "Angelic Doctor" for his purity of mind and body, and remarkable intelligence. St. Thomas Aquinas is the patron of schools and universities, students, philosophers, theologians, apologists, academics and chastity.

IMPORTANCE OF CONFESSION IN LENT

Go to your confessor; open your heart to him; display to him all the recesses of your soul; take the advice that he will give you with the utmost humility and simplicity. For God, Who has an infinite love for obedience, frequently renders profitable the counsels we take from others, but especially from those who are the guides of our souls.

--St. Francis de Sales

"A soul does not benefit from the sacrament of confession if it is not humble. Pride keeps it in darkness. The soul neither knows how, nor is it willing, to probe with precision the depths of its own misery. It puts on a mask and avoids everything that might bring it recovery."

--Saint Faustina

DO YOU APPRECIATE A GOOD CHILI?

We are looking for judges for our annual chili contest on Laetare Sunday, March 27. Everyone who eats gets to judge. This has been a fun event for many of our members for several years and proves to be an excellent way to get to know more of the faithful at St. Patrick Oratory. Plan to have lunch downstairs in O'Brien Hall after the 10 am Mass. For $2 per person (or $10 per family), you will enjoy all-you-can-eat chili and join in the fun. If you want to be a contestant, you and your family eat for free! To enter your own chili in the contest, contact Bonni Kanzenbach (bonnithemom@zohomail.com or 715-757-2707) Any left-overs will be sold to benefit St. Patrick Oratory, so bring containers to take home some of the most amazing chili you'll ever have!
