Notice regarding contributions of the IHM Oratory to Five Wounds Portuguese Parish

During our four years at Five Wounds Church, our situation here has solidified. Since the IHM Oratory was established at Five Wounds Church in December, 2013, the Oratory has been giving 60% of our regular Sunday collection, which has amounted to an average of about $4000 per month, as a contribution to the parish for the use of the church and its facilities. Since our usage of the church has been constant throughout this period, the parish and the Oratory have agreed to settle on a fixed amount to be paid by the Oratory instead of the percentage of the collection as per the previous agreement. Accordingly, from the month of October and going forward, the Oratory will pay $4000 per month to the Parish as rent for use of the church and its facilities. We will continue to take a monthly second collection for the needs of the Oratory, which have been increasing as the community has been growing. Thank you for your understanding and support.

Dear Faithful of the Oratory

My name is Abbé Paul McKown. Some of you may remember that I spent two and a half weeks here last summer. I am delighted to be among you again.

I am originally from the small town of Brooklyn, Michigan. My parents sent my brother, Ryan, and me to Catholic schools for our education. Upon completion of High School, I went to Michigan State University, where, in 2013, I earned a Bachelor's Degree in Linguistics, which is the study of various aspects of language.

After completing my degree, I spent a year in the Institute Candidacy Program in St. Louis, MO, where I learned French, Latin, and Gregorian Chant as well as the way of life in the Institute. The following year I entered the Seminary near Florence, Italy. I have just completed my two years of Philosophy and am now beginning four years of Theology.

At the seminary, I had a variety of jobs from helping with the olive oil cruets and mustard jars for our dinner tables to ringing the bell before every Office, class, Mass or other events during the day, including our wake-up call. Having such a variety of jobs gives us valuable practical experience which will help us later on as priests.

This year, I will continue my studies and also will teach Catechism and train the Altar Boys. I look forward to spending an excellent year here at the Oratory.

In Christ the King,
Abbé Paul McKown
