INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Watch and Pray

Satan wants victory at any cost because his proud mind cannot accept humiliation and defeat. He is the perverted spirit, whose every gift is turned toward evil.

The spiritual fight is intense. We all need to be reminded of the Savior's words: "Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation".

Very often we get trapped because we are too self-confident, we are presumptuous. And the vile spirit with its hateful and dreadful army comes to take possession of our soul. If we want to reach victory we must make strong and courageous decisions.

When everyone left, Our Lady remained standing. This is why, in our Lenten resolutions and in the spiritual fight they imply, we humbly put ourselves under her protection in order to come out victorious from the battle.

Have a blessed Lent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

MARCH - THE MONTH OF ST. JOSEPH

St. Benedict of Nursia

Patron of the Institute of Christ the King

Plenary Indulgence may be gained

Monday, March 22

Mass at 6:30 a.m. & 6:00 p.m.

(480-547 A.D.) and his twin sister, St. Scholastica, were born to a Roman nobleman and his wife in Nursia, Italy. He spent his childhood with his parents in Rome. As a young man he found in himself a strong desire to escape the trifling's of the world and serve God. He left his family and wealth and settled in the mountainous region of Subiaco.

After three years living in solitude as a cave-dwelling hermit, he was asked to lead a monastery in the place of an abbot who had died. Benedict did as they asked, but his way of life was too extreme for the monks and they tried to poison him. He thwarted their evil designs by blessing the poisoned cup, rendering it ineffective. Benedict returned to his cave, where news of his sanctity and miracles began to spread. Soon a community of men surrounded him wanting to adopt his way of life. To house them Benedict established twelve monasteries, including the world-famous Monte Cassino, and gave them a rule of life to live by, known as the Rule of St. Benedict. His Rule—still observed by Benedictines today—helped form the civilization and culture of Europe. Because of the organization, structure, and discipline he brought to the monastic life, he is known as the Founder of Western Monasticism. He is the patron saint of monks, students, farmers, all of Europe, and more. He is also especially known for his intercession against poison, temptations, and witchcraft.

Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Friday, March 25

9:00 a.m. Low Mass & 6:00 p.m. High Mass

The Feast of the Annunciation, celebrated on March 25th, honors the profound meeting between the Archangel Gabriel and the Virgin Mary, as recorded in St. Luke's Gospel. On this day St. Gabriel announced to Mary Immaculate that she would miraculously conceive a Child by the Holy Spirit, the long-awaited Messiah who would save mankind from their sins. This is the moment of the Blessed Virgin Mary's great fiat of perfect submission to the Divine will. This day on which the Church celebrates the Incarnation of Jesus Christ in the womb of His Blessed Mother is exactly nine months before the Feast of the Nativity on Dec. 25.

Special Visit and Spiritual Talk

On Saturday, March 26, S. Patrick's Oratory is very pleased to welcome the Very Rev. Fr. John Girotti, JCL, following the celebration of the 9:00 am Mass. Fr. Girotti will present a spiritual talk on God's closeness to us. After there will be a brief Q&A session regarding the Catholic Faith, all to be held in O'Brien Hall. It's a wonderful opportunity to learn more spiritually, and all are encouraged to attend.

Refreshments will be served!

Prayer to St. Joseph

by St. Francis de Sales

Glorious Saint Joseph, spouse of Mary, grant us thy paternal protection, we beseech thee by the Heart of Jesus Christ. O thou, whose power extends to all our necessities and can render possible for us the most impossible things, open thy fatherly eyes to the needs of thy children. In the trouble and distress which afflicts us, we confidently have recourse to thee. Deign to take under thy charitable charge this important and difficult matter, cause of our worries. Make its happy outcome be for God's glory and for the good of His devoted servants. Amen

We are looking for judges for our annual chili contest on Laetare Sunday, March 27. Everyone who eats gets to judge. This is an excellent opportunity to get to know more of the faithful at St. Patrick's Oratory. Plan to have lunch in O'Brien Hall after the 10am Mass. For $2 per person (or $10 per family), you will enjoy all-you-can-eat chili and join in the fun. If you want to be a contestant, you and your family eat for free! To enter your own chili in the contest, please contact Bonni Kanzenbach at: bonnithemom@zohomail.com or call 715-757-2707. Left-overs will be sold to benefit St. Patrick Oratory, so bring containers to take home some of the most amazing chili you'll ever have!

Do you like to play cribbage?

Join us after the chili contest in O'Brien Hall on Sunday, March 27 for great competition in a cribbage tournament! Those who don't play cribbage should bring checkers, chess, or any other game and find a friend to play with for an afternoon of fun on Laetare Sunday!
