The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

At that time, Pilate said to Jesus, Are You the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Do you say this of yourself, or have others told you of Me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would certainly have fought that I might not be delivered to the Hebrews. But, as it is, My kingdom is not from here. Pilate therefore said to Him, You are then a King? Jesus answered, You say it: I am a King. This is why I was born, and why I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.

During the First Week of November

the Church invites us to visit cemeteries to pray for the souls who repose there, so as to gain for them a plenary indulgence. We can gain this indulgence once each day, during that week. On the table by the side door, there is a sign-up sheet so that you can request prayers for your loved ones by listing their names and the cemetery where they are buried. Members of our Oratory family will plan to visit specific cemeteries on specific days during that week. If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Chris Garton-Zavesky at cgartonzavesky@protonmail.com.

Meeting Regarding Finding a Building

This Thursday we will have an in-person meeting in the chapel at 14442 Union Ave. at 7:00 p.m. to update you about our situation. Members of the building committee will be happy to answer your questions at the end of the meeting. We will send link for those attending online. I hope that you will be there.

Birthday Blessing

After Mass today, October 31, Canon will give a blessing for all those whose birthday is this month.

Today, October 31, Special Collection for Institute Seminarians

There is a special collection today to support the Institute's International Seminary in Gricigliano, Italy. Your generosity is truly appreciated and is always remembered by our Canons and seminarians.

Signing Up for Mass Intentions, 2022

We are no longer taking any Mass Intentions through the end of the year, as all the dates have been taken. If there are any emergencies, they will need to be placed on next year's calendar since Canon Law prohibits more than one intention per Mass. We will be taking new intentions for next year on December 12th. Thank you for your understanding.

Dear Faithful,

Last Sunday's Gospel was very meaningful for me. Jesus said, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." The Church, as an earthly reality, is not completely exempt from contingent circumstances, and we find that this is so in our case.

I was quite nonplussed by the new landlord's unexpected request that we move out in 30 days; we had been told by the previous landlord that we would be able to stay until next year. Of course, the landlord was merely exercising his rights, but we now find that we have to move very suddenly, and, in fact, this move will take place this weekend. Without faith, hope and charity, we would have been lost, but God has been here to sustain and to help us find our way through. May Christ the King continue to enlighten our minds and to fill our hearts with zeal for His Love. In Christ,

— Canon Raphael Ueda
