INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Come Holy Ghost!

The Holy Ghost molds us from within with his gifts and fruits so that we, too, might be courageous witnesses and enlightened heralds.

It's not an easy time to be a Catholic today. It's not easy, but Jesus never promised it would be. He promised, however, that He would be with us until the end of time and that He would send the Holy Ghost to transform us not only with words but by incorporating us into the Word.

And that's what makes this time a great time to be Catholic, to give witness to the fact that Jesus is worth living for and dying for, even if we should have to suffer for it.

This is one of those times. It's a great time to be a Christian. Despite the challenges, the Holy Ghost is so much stronger.

And He wants to transform you and me to be up for that challenge. We will win!

Come Holy Ghost! Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

As you celebrate your First Communion today, remember that God's love will always be there to comfort you, guide you, and bless you.

Remember to often receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament, to love Him above all things and welcome Him into your soul.

May Jesus make this day a very happy one for you and your families. May He bring you great joy and fill your hearts with His love.

Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Tuesday, May 31 - 6:00 p.m. Mass

The Feast of the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary, this title of Our Lady, Queen of Heaven (Regina Caeli), is rooted in biblical history where the mother of Israel's king had the royal title of Queen Mother. Church Tradition holds that once Mary, the Mother of God, was assumed body and soul into heaven at the end of her earthy life, she was crowned as Queen of Heaven and Earth to reign alongside her Son, Jesus the King of Kings.

Your Excellency, thank you for your leadership and guidance.

Bishop David L. Ricken's statement regarding the Ulvade, Texas School

My heart is heavy laden with sorrow for the loss of life of innocent children and teachers in the mass shooting event in Ulvade, Texas. My daily prayers will be accompanying the dear parents and families who must be deeply wounded by this hateful attack. May God's healing love be poured into the families, churches, and entire community of Ulvade. Young men in our country are screaming out for love and care. Misdirected anger and hatred ravage our nation. Hatred and violence are never the solutions. Obedience to God, His Ten Commandments, and the Great Commandment of love is the only answer. Let us fast and pray and beg God's forgiveness for neglecting Him and for submitting ourselves to the powers of darkness instead of living in His Kingdom of Light, peace, and joy.

Bishop David L. Ricken's statement regarding Archbishop Cordileone's decision

I wish to express my strong support for Archbishop Cordileone's decision stating he has publicly declared that Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi not be admitted to Holy Communion. Speaker Pelosi's aggressive promotion of abortion and blatant public disregard for Church teaching has consequences. In many ways, she has made this choice herself through her words and actions. Despite repeated pastoral outreach by the Archbishop, his clear teaching on the dignity of each human life, and specific letters and requests to meet personally with Speaker Pelosi, she has chosen not to respond. Let us continue to pray for Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi's conversion and a greater respect for life in our country.
