Making Our Hearts Like Unto Jesus' Merciful Heart

The Feast of the Sacred Heart is meant to help us recognize once again the direction of Jesus' heart and to check our own.

It is an opportunity for us to examine our situation and if we're not relating to Him in His forgiving love as He deserves, to turn things around, to trust anew and to show our gratitude, to allow Jesus' mercy to forgive us our failings and give us His help to love Him as He deserves.

It's a gift to transform us, to educate our hearts to love Jesus and to love like Jesus, to make Him, and His mercy, and His real presence in the Eucharist the true and lasting treasure of our hearts.

This is the way that St. Paul's prayer at the end of today's Epistle will be fulfilled, "that Christ may dwell in [our] hearts through faith".

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, make our hearts like unto Thine. Amen!

Happy feast day! May God bless you all!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Act of Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

MOST sweet Jesus, whose overflowing charity for men is requited by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, behold us prostrate before Thee, eager to repair by a special act of homage the cruel indifference and injuries to which Thy loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful, alas! that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, we humbly ask Thy pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation, not only for our own personal offenses, but also for the sins of those, who, straying far from the path of salvation, refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow Thee, their Shepherd and Leader, or, renouncing the promises of their baptism, have cast off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

We are now resolved to expiate each and every deplorable outrage committed against Thee; we are now determined to make amends for the manifold offenses against Christian modesty in unbecoming dress and behavior, for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, for the frequent violations of Sundays and holydays, and the shocking blasphemies uttered against Thee and Thy Saints.

We wish also to make amends for the insults to which Thy Vicar on earth and Thy priests are subjected, for the profanation, by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, of the very crimes of nations who resist the rights and teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast founded.

Would that we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. We now offer, in reparation for these violations of Thy divine honor, the satisfaction Thou once made to Thy Eternal Father on the cross and which Thou continuest to renew daily on our altars; we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of Thy Virgin Mother and all the Saints and of the pious faithful on earth; and we sincerely promise to make recompense, as far as we can with the help of Thy grace, for all neglect of Thy great love and for the sins we and others have committed in the past.

Henceforth, we will live a life of unswerving faith, of purity of conduct, of perfect observance of the precepts of the Gospel and especially that of charity. We promise to the best of our power to prevent others from offending Thee and to bring as many as possible to follow Thee.

O loving Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mother, our model in reparation, deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; and by the crowning gift of perseverance keep us faithful unto death in our duty and the allegiance we owe to Thee, so that we may all one day come to that happy home, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit Thou livest and reignest, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ

Friday, July 1 - 6:00 p.m. Mass

On July 1, the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ is celebrated. It is a reminder that the price of our redemption was high, and in order to underline the importance of this fact the entire month of July is consecrated to the Most Precious Blood. As we were saved through Christ's bloody sacrifice at Calvary, the Church invites us to have great devotion to Jesus' Precious Blood.

Many of the priests of the Institute of Christ the King were ordained on July 1, including our very own Canon Boucheron. We give thanks to God for the many graces they have received throughout their priestly life, and for their service to the faithful entrusted to them. Deo Gratias

Visitation of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary

Saturday, July 2 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

The Feast of the Visitation celebrates the biblical account of the providential meeting of Mary and Elizabeth, when two of the Church's greatest prayers were first uttered. After being told by the Archangel Gabriel that she would bear the Son of God, the pregnant Virgin Mary went to visit her cousin, Elizabeth, who was then pregnant with John the Baptist. In the presence of Jesus in the womb of the Blessed Virgin, Elizabeth exclaimed through the Holy Spirit, "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb!" Mary, overflowing with joy, responded with her Magnificat.
