INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

“Ephpheta - Be opened”

When we read the Gospel accounts of our Lord healing people, we recognize, of course, that these were real people upon whom our Lord had compassion. There really was a man born blind, a woman with a hemorrhage, another with a fever, a man with a withered hand, and there really was a man who was deaf and dumb. The evangelists recorded these cures, both as evidence of our Lord's concern for His people, and to demonstrate that the Son of God had power over sin, sickness, and death.

All of us are a bit humanly and spiritually deaf and dumb. And we know that our Lord is willing to cure all those who bring their sins before Him. We must bring our deafness and dumbness before the Lord and ask Him to increase in us the gifts of the Holy Ghost.

He is saying that the cure for our deafness can only be in the Wisdom and Understanding and Knowledge, in the Counsel and Fortitude and Piety and Fear of the Lord that come only from the Holy Ghost.

We must come before the Lord and entreat Him that our deafness and dumbness be healed; that He will say the word “Ephpheta” so that we may listen and speak correctly before God and men.

May God bless you!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Monday, August 22 - 8:00 a.m. Mass

Since Our Lady's whole life was a life of her Heart, the Immaculate Heart represents her life, her love, herself. From the moment of Conception, Mary offered acts of faith, hope, love, praise, adoration, and thanksgiving to the God who created her. Her one ambition was union with God, her desire to do His will; the light of grace found no obstacle in her pure soul. Her Immaculate Heart was the throne of all virtue. Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary is the complement of devotion to the Sacred Heart; in the one we honor Christ, the Redeemer; in the other, Mary, co-redemptrix. Thus we honor Christ's mother with the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

God was so pleased with His Masterpiece of creation, Mary, that He willed to be born of her pure flesh and blood. By giving her consent, Mary became the channel through which Christ came to men; and this channel is the surest way to lead us back to God. It was Mary's love for man, joined with and flowing from her love of God, that made her utter her "Fiat" – that Fiat meant consent to the Incarnation and to the Redemption. So also the Salvation of the world depends on Mary.

Among Our Lady's urgent requests at Fatima was the plea for devotion and consecration to her Immaculate Heart – our devotion to Mary is neither complete nor true, unless we are willing to give ourselves over to the object of our love; true devotion culminates in dedication or consecration. Consecration consists in an act, by which we promise Our Lady not only everything we possess, but our very selves as well; and this, not for a time, but forever; secondly, it is a state whereby we recognize God's sovereign dominion by acknowledging Christ as our King, and Our Lady as our Queen, pledging them complete service and devotion.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Act of Consecration

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of heaven and earth and tender mother of men, in accordance with thy ardent wish made known at Fatima, I consecrate to thee myself, my brethren, my country and the whole human race. Reign over us and teach us how to make the Heart of Jesus reign and triumph in us and around us as It has reigned and triumphed in thee.

Reign over us, dearest Mother, that we may be thine in prosperity and in adversity, in joy and in sorrow, in health and in sickness, in life and in death. O most compassionate Heart of Mary, Queen of Virgins, watch over our minds and hearts and preserve them from the deluge of impurity which thou didst lament so sorrowfully at Fatima. We want to be pure like thee. We want to atone for the many sins committed against Jesus and thee. We want to call down upon our country and the whole world the peace of God in justice and charity.

Therefore, we promise now to imitate thy virtues by the practice of a Christian life without regard to human respect. We resolve to receive Holy Communion on the first Saturday of every month and to offer thee five decades of the Rosary each day together with our sacrifices of reparation and penance. Amen.
