INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Let us not be shy!

The Catholic seeks the glory of God and not his own. The glory he is looking for is that of God. That is why he never puts himself first.

This enables him to be at the same time great and small, bright and shy. The Catholic knows that he is a dependent creature, created, redeemed, forgiven, and loved. He knows that Christ wants to infuse His grace through men; through their explicit example, through their courageous words, and through the concrete actions of the Good Samaritan.

Here is the truth: we have to become good Samaritans, sons of Light. Jesus says it.

If we hesitate to recognize it, there are two reasons:

- We do not rely enough on God
- We rely too much on ourselves

Either we are full of pride or we despise ourselves or are paralyzed into inactivity and merely hug the walls. Then we call humility what is just cowardice or resignation. The Catholic is really a Good Samaritan when he uses all his strength for someone other than himself. This is the theology of hope.

I am sure the Lord gives me, today, the grace I need. What a freedom! Let's keep hope! It keeps us from shyness and fear.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

SEPTEMBER, THE MONTH OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

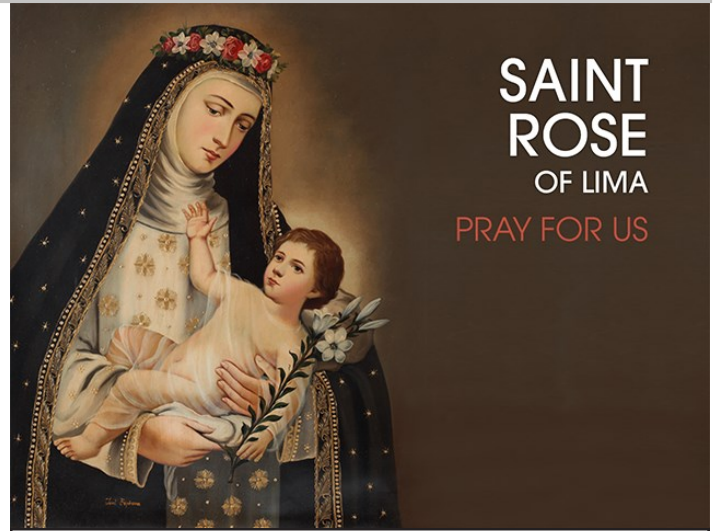

SEPTEMBER Month of Our Lady of Sorrows

The Church dedicates the month of September to Our Lady of Sorrows, also known as Mater Dolorosa (Mother of Sorrows). This devotion recalls the Blessed Virgin Mary's spiritual martyrdom in virtue of her perfect union with the Passion of Christ. This was her role in salvation history, and what merited her place as the spiritual Mother of all Christians. This is symbolized by a single sword, or seven swords, piercing Mary's suffering heart, as foretold in Simeon's prophecy. Traditionally the Church meditates on the "Seven Sorrows" of our Blessed Mother: the prophecy of Simeon; the Holy Family's flight into Egypt; the loss of the Child Jesus for three days; the meeting of Mary and Jesus as he carried his cross; Jesus' crucifixion and death; Jesus' sacred body taken down from the cross; and Jesus' burial. The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows (Mater Dolorosa) is September 15th.

Canon Antoine Boucheron and the faithful of St. Patrick's Oratory wish to offer a heartfelt thank you to Rev. Fr. Rolando Silva for again filling in this year during Canon's absence, serving the faithful of the Oratory. May God reward you!

Tuesday, August 30 - 6:00 p.m. Mass

St. Rose (1586-1617) was born in Lima, Peru, one of ten children belonging to a Spanish immigrant and his wife, a descendant of the Incas. Rose was beautiful and very pious. She was so sensitive to compliments on her physical appearance that, to combat vanity, she disfigured her face with pepper and lime. When her father's finances deteriorated, Rose used her skill at needlework to help support her family. Her parents desired that she marry, but she refused, and lived as a recluse in a hut in her parent's garden. Inspired by the example of St. Catherine of Siena, Rose joined the Third Order Dominicans, dedicated her life to chastity and assisting the sick and poor, and inflicted severe penances on herself daily. For this extreme behavior she endured disapproval and persecution from her family, especially when she began to have visions and other mystical experiences. An evaluation by priests and physicians proved Rose's experiences to be authentically supernatural. She also spoke out against the corruption of her day, as the Spanish grew rich from Peru's natural resources while Peruvians became impoverished. She was greatly revered by the people, and at the time of her death, at the age of 31, her body could not be buried for several days due to the large crowds. After her death many miracles were attributed to her intercession. Rose of Lima was the first native-born saint from the Americas to be canonized. She is the patroness of the Americas, the Philippines, India, Peru, and of gardeners, florists, needle-workers, and against vanity.
