INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Can we trust God to help us now?

In our own lives, Jesus continues to give us sign after sign of His mercy and faithfulness - yet when a new trial enters our lives we wonder, "Can we trust God to help us now?" When we hear the words of Jesus spoken by the priest, do we truly believe that our sins have been forgiven?

A famous humorist said, "If it looks like a duck, and quacks like a duck, we have at least to consider the possibility that we have a small aquatic bird of the family anatidae on our hands." If Jesus continues to show powers that belong solely to God, it is true that Jesus is God. And when Jesus forgives sins and has given this power to His church, should we not believe when a priest says, "your sins are forgiven"? Let us no longer doubt, but believe.

Let us acknowledge Christ as our Lord, as the supreme power and authority in all created existence, and especially in our lives: O Lord, you have the first and the last words in our lives. You are in charge. It is from You that we should take our orders for living.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

October - The Month of the Holy Rosary

Saturday, October 15 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

St. Teresa of Avila (1515-1582), also known as St. Teresa of Jesus, was born in Spain to a large, devout, and prominent Catholic family. Fascinated with the lives of the saints taught to her by her pious parents, as children she and a brother tried to run away from home to seek martyrdom among the Moors. After an uncle found them and returned them home, they built hermitages for themselves in the family garden. At the age of 14 Teresa was plunged into sorrow upon the death of her mother; to find consolation she asked the Virgin Mary to be her new mother.

When she began to exhibit worldly vanities, her father placed her in a convent to be educated with other ladies of her social class. Determined to avoid marriage, and motivated more by the need for security than love for God, at the age of 20 Teresa entered religious life as a Carmelite nun. For two decades she led what she describes as a mediocre prayer life, hindered by too much socialization with visitors. However, an intense prayer experience in her 40's helped her to renounce worldly attachments and enter deeper into a life of prayer. She advanced rapidly and taught others to do the same, being encouraged by a vision of the place reserved for her in hell if she was unfaithful to God's graces. She had many profound mystical experiences for which she was often slandered and ridiculed. After the reform of her own life she worked hard to reform the laxity of many Carmelite convents, and was successful even while being greatly opposed in her efforts. She was a strong and important female figure of her era, and her great progress in the spiritual life led her to write the spiritual classics Interior Castle and The Way of Perfection. For these works St. Teresa of Avila was named the first female Doctor of the Church. Her feast day is October 15th. She is the patron saint of those who suffer from headaches and migraines, those who are ill, people ridiculed for their religious faith, and Spain.

Invitation To Missa Alba (White Mass)

Saturday, October 22 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

Perhaps no group of people has been so affected by difficulties in the last few years as the front-line workers in the medical profession. In order to gather members of the medical field (doctors, nurses, pharmacists, nurse's aides, respiratory therapists, etc.) under the patronage of St. Luke, the historic St. Patrick's Oratory in Green Bay will be offering a "White Mass" on Saturday, October 22, at 9:00 a.m.

The tradition of these Masses dates back to the 1930's. The Divine Liturgy will be expressed as a High Mass in the Extraordinary Form with new music composed by Kevin Allen and sung by the St. Patrick's Men's Schola. All are welcome to attend the Mass, but a special invitation is extended to the members of the medical field and their families. A blessing of the hands, with a light lunch follows the Mass.

News from the Province

From the Seminary: First Year Seminarians Receive Habit

After having prepared themselves for a few days in the house of the Sister Adorers in Le Noirmont, Switzerland, the new first-year seminarians recently received their choir habit from the hands of Canon Mora, seminary rector.

This academic year will have seminary chapel filled with thirty young men beginning their priestly formation. Among them is a record number of thirteen seminarians who have come from the United States.

Their newly-received choir habit, a blue cape, places them already under the protection of Our Lady as they begin their years of formation.

May she protect them and nurture their vocations to be good and holy priests for the Church!
