What are we waiting for?

To recognize that Jesus is the answer to the question, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" means to convert so that we strive to live our whole life in communion with Him, clearing from our life whatever keeps us from Him, and filling our life with everything – prayer, the sacraments, good friends, spiritual direction, virtuous behavior – that will help us keep communion.

God-with-us, Emmanuel, has come into our world to be with us full-time, accompanying us in our journeys, guiding us with His rod and staff, with His courage and grace, along the road of holiness to the Father's eternal house.

St. John the Baptist on this Second Sunday of Advent helps us to see that the definitive answer to our deepest hopes has been given and He wants to urge us to follow Him all the way.

He is coming. Let's be prepared! Have a blessed Advent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Feast of the Immaculate Conception

Thursday, December 8

8:00 a.m. Low Mass | 6:00 p.m. High Mass

~Holy Day of Obligation~

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is the infallibly defined dogma of the Catholic Church that "God freely chose Mary from all eternity to be the Mother of his Son. In order to carry out her mission she herself was conceived immaculate. This means that, thanks to the grace of God and in anticipation of the merits of Jesus Christ, Mary was preserved from original sin from the first instant of her conception" (Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church). Chosen by God to be the Mother of the Savior and the "New Eve," Mary Immaculate is a type of the Church and the perfect model of holiness for all Christians. Mary under this title is the patroness of the United States of America, and the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Our Lady is the second Patron Saint of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest.

A plenary indulgence may be gained by assisting Holy Mass at any Institute apostolate under ordinary conditions: Sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion, prayers for intentions of the Holy Father and detachment from all sin.

Novena to the Immaculate Conception

November 29 - December 7

O most holy Virgin who wast pleasing to God and didst become His Mother. Immaculate in your body, in your soul, in your faith and in your love, we beseech thee to look graciously upon the wretched who implore thy powerful protection. The wicked serpent, against whom the primal curse was hurled, continues none the less to wage war and to lay snares for the unhappy children of Eve. Ah, do thou, our blessed Mother, our Queen and Advocate, who from the first instant of thy conception didst crush the head of our enemy, receive the prayers that we unite single-heartedly to thine and conjure thee to offer at the throne of God, that we may never fall into the snares that are laid for us, in such wise that we may all come to the haven of salvation; and in the midst of so many dangers may holy Church and the fellowship of Christians everywhere sing once more the hymn of deliverance, victory and peace. Amen.

Thou art all fair, O Mary. And the original stain is not in thee. Thou art the glory of Jerusalem. Thou art the joy of Israel. Thou art the honour of our people. Thou art the advocate of sinners. O Mary, virgin most prudent, mother most tender, pray for us. Intercede for us with Jesus Christ Our Lord.

V. In thy conception, O Virgin, thou wast immaculate.

R. Pray for us to the Father, Whose Son thou didst bring forth.

Let us pray.

O God who, by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin, didst make her a worthy habitation for Thy Son, and didst, by His foreseen death, preserve her from all stain of sin; grant we beseech Thee, that through her intercession we may be cleansed from sin and come with pure hearts to Thee. Through the same Christ Our Lord. (Amen.)
