The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

All invited.

We are called to be stewards of the mystery of Christmas, first within ourselves, and then within the world.

We are servants of Jesus, summoned to bring to others the reality of the light Jesus brought into the world's darkness, a light that has not been extinguished and is meant to burn even more brightly in the difficulties of our age. St. John the Baptist and St. Paul were both good and faithful stewards and servants.

St Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation, and that is certainly what St. Joseph did. He teaches us how to be a faithful, humble, trustworthy guardian of Jesus and is a living commentary on how to respond to the mystery of Christmas.

During these last days of Advent, let us ask for the grace to enter Mary's womb so that we might contemplate there, and grow together with, the Blessed Fruit of that womb.

And then, let us move from her womb into her contemplative heart, so that we, too, may prepare the way to live to the fullest the ongoing Revelation of the mystery of Bethlehem, the Revelation whom we prepare now to meet at the altar.

Have a blessed Advent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

St. Thomas the Apostle (1st c.) was one of the twelve disciples who accompanied Jesus during His earthly ministry. He is remembered for his disbelief in the news of Christ's Resurrection until he physically saw and touched Jesus' wounds -thus earning him the name "Doubting Thomas." After Pentecost he traveled and preached throughout Persia and southeast Asia. Early traditions ascribe his main work and martyrdom to India, so that he is also called the "Apostle of India." He converted many to Christ, worked miracles, and established the Church in the East. One tradition holds that on his way to India he met and baptized the Three Wise Men of the Nativity who first venerated Jesus at Bethlehem. St. Thomas is also remembered for being a skilled carpenter, and according to Indian tradition he built the first churches in India with his own hands. St. Thomas the Apostle is the patron of India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Singapore, architects, builders, masons, surveyors, theologians, against blindness, and of people in doubt.

EXODUS

Exodus 90

Exodus 90 is a ninety-day spiritual exercise for men based on three pillars: prayer, asceticism, and fraternity. All three of these pillars are essential aspects of the Christian life. It is for this reason that taking up this spiritual exercise requires taking up all three of these pillars both simultaneously and humbly. Exodus 90 begins January 9, 2023, and ends on Holy Saturday, April 8, 2021. If we can get a big enough group of men at St. Patrick's willing to accept the challenge (preferably at least 5 men), we'll move forward with scheduling weekly meetings at a time and location that works for everyone.

For more information about Exodus 90 please visit exodus90.com or contact John Maurer at (262) 771-6930 or email: hmaurer1997@gmail.com.
