ORATORY CLERGY

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

“Be humbled under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in the time of visitation.”

God wants to forgive our sins, but one of His conditions – in addition to repentance and Confession – is a willingness to forgive the sins of our neighbors: “Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.”

That should be a great incentive to forgive those who offend us. If we refuse forgiveness, we place ourselves in danger of not being forgiven by God. If we do forgive, we make our own salvation possible, as well as that of our contrite neighbor. And remember:

“There shall be joy before the angels of God
upon one sinner doing penance.”

With the forgiveness of a neighbor we are quite likely to double the joy of the angels in Heaven!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

How do you offer a Mass for someone?

We see in the church Bulletin, "This Mass is being offered for the intentions of [someone]." What does this mean, and how do we offer a Mass for a friend, a family member or the deceased?

The Mass is the most powerful of all prayers, so it is a very effective way to pray for loved ones. Praying for loved ones through the Mass is an ancient tradition. While you can personally offer your prayers at Mass for a special intention, requesting that a priest say a Mass for your intention can be even more powerful because the priest himself has offered the Mass for that intention.

You can offer a Mass for family members, friends, or any special intention, but Masses offered for the dead are particularly powerful. In fact, many souls have actually appeared to loved ones to ask for Masses to be said for them so that they will be released from Purgatory. Since the souls in Purgatory are no longer able to pray for themselves, they rely on the prayers and good works of those still on earth to help them enter heaven sooner. Jesus loves them so much that He will often release a soul sooner when such prayers as the Mass are offered.

When you request a Mass for a special intention it is customary to give a very small monetary gift, called a Stipend, in the Diocese of Green Bay the customary amount is $10, if you cannot afford that amount any offering is accepted.

Requesting a Mass for your special intention is easier than you might think

To have a Mass offered, Please print names legibly on a slip of paper, Include the intention of the Mass and who it is offered by if you choose.

Insert it in an envelope and indicate "Attn: Mass stipend". You may place it in the normal weekly collection basket or mail it to the Rectory (Please make checks payable to: ICKSP Green Bay). Please limit your requests to 10 per family per year. For emergencies (i.g. a loved one who just passed away) call Canon Boucheron.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen.

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, Patron of Fathers, Families and the Universal Church, Pray for us.

Nativity of John the Baptist

Saturday, June 24 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

A family relation of Jesus, St. John the Baptist is called "the Forerunner" because he was sent by God to "prepare the way of the Lord" ahead of Jesus' public ministry. The birth of St. John the Baptist to his elderly and previously barren parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth, is recorded in St. Luke's Gospel. His birth was announced to his father Zechariah by the Archangel Gabriel, who also brought the news of Christ's birth to the Blessed Virgin Mary. John the Baptist's nativity is one of only three birthdays celebrated by the Church, along with the nativities of Jesus and Mary. Though not an official dogma, according to ancient tradition St. John the Baptist was freed from original sin at the moment his mother heard the greeting of the Blessed Virgin at the Visitation, causing John to leap in his mother's womb through the action of the Holy Spirit. So, like Jesus and Mary, St. John would have been born without sin, and therefore his birthday is also worthy of special honor. Because Christ praised John the Baptist so highly by saying "Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist," he was one of the most highly venerated saints in the ancient and medieval Church. He has two feasts: his nativity on June 24th and his passion on August 29th.
