INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

One God and Father of All

The spiritual objective which the Sacred Liturgy offers to us today is precise. St. Paul exhorts us to unity: one Lord, one faith, one baptism. Today's Gospel from St. Matthew is a summary of the law and the prophets. The greatest commandment is that of charity.

The love of God and the love of neighbor are but one.

The entire law is summarized in these two general principles: the love of God and the love of neighbor.

This teaching of Our Savior is given to us with authority and in this last part of the Gospel, Jesus makes it understandable for those who not only refuse to acknowledge Him as the Son of David, but that He is also the only Son of God, born of an eternal and divine birth.

When He teaches, He engages His divine authority.

The commandment of love is therefore not an option. It is given to us by Jesus revealing His divinity.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

SEPTEMBER - MONTH OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Dedication of St. Michael the Archangel

Friday, September 29

6:00 p.m. Mass

St. Michael's name - Quis ut Deus or Who is Like God --this was the war-cry of the good angels in the battle fought in heaven against the enemy and his followers.

Four times his name is recorded in Scripture:

Daniel 10:13, Gabriel says to Daniel, "The Angel of the kingdom of the Persians resisted me...and, behold Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me...and none is my helper in all these things, but Michael your prince."

Daniel 12, the Angel speaking of the end of the world and the Antichrist says: "At that time shall Michael rise up, the great prince, who standeth for the children of thy people."

Catholic Epistle of St. Jude: "When Michael the Archangel, disputing with the devil, contended about the body of Moses," etc.

Apocalypse 12:7, "And there was a great battle in heaven, Michael and his angels fought with the dragon." St. John speaks here of the great conflict at the end of time.

Following these Scriptural passages then, Christian tradition assigns to St. Michael four functions:

- * To fight against Satan.
- * To rescue the souls of the faithful from the power of the enemy, especially at the hour of death.
- * To be the champion of God's people, the Jews in the Old Law, the Christians in the New Testament, making him, therefore, patron of the Church.
- * To call away from the Earth men's souls bringing them to judgment.

Pray with the Institute of Christ the King nationwide from September 29, feast of St Michael, to October 7, feast of Our Lady of the Rosary to ask for holy priests, oblates, and seminarians who will be in the service of the Church!

You can offer a special prayer for this intention with the holy cards that are available for you to take and share at the entrance of the church.
