ORATORY CLERGY

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Time flies

Today St. Paul exhorts each of us not to waste the gift of life God has given us but to take full advantage of the time God has given us, the means of salvation with which he has blessed us, the opportunities he has placed before us to do something great, holy, life-giving and life-saving. Most people, do not live with sufficient intentionality.

We sleepwalk through human existence, being changed by our environment more than we change it.

St. Paul is trying to wake us up, to help us to mature spiritually, and to make full use of the time we have. "Watch carefully then how you live."

St. Paul is calling us to live like Jesus did in the midst of what Jesus called a "wicked and perverse generation," as St. Paul did in the midst of the sins of his own epoch, as the Popes have incessantly urged us to do in the modern world, and as Catholics as salt of the earth and light of the world are called to do in every age.

May God bless you !

Canon Antoine Boucheron

OCTOBER - THE MONTH OF HOLY ROSARY

SAINT
LUKE
PRAY FOR US

St. Luke

Wednesday, October 18 - Mass at 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

St. Luke the Evangelist (1st c.) was a well-educated Greek physician and a native of Antioch in Syria. He was one of the earliest converts to Christianity, believed to have been one of Jesus' seventy disciples. He was a follower of St. Paul the Apostle and spent most of his life evangelizing with him in Asia Minor up until the time of St. Paul's martyrdom in Rome. St. Luke wrote a canonical account of his apostolic journeys with St. Paul (the Book of Acts) as well as a biography on the life of Christ (the Gospel of Luke).

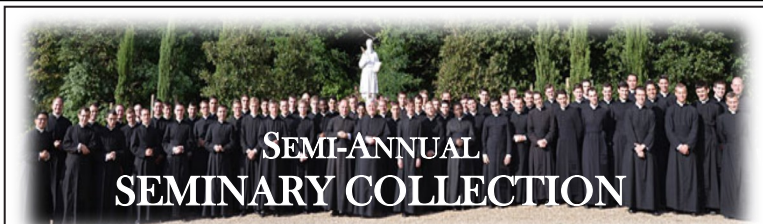

The two books of St. Luke's Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles were originally a single work. The intimate accounts contained in St. Luke's gospel of the early years of Christ's life (the Visitation, the Nativity, the Presentation, etc.) lead many scholars to believe that one of the eyewitnesses he interviewed was the Blessed Virgin Mary herself. According to tradition he was also a skilled artist and painted the first icons of Our Lady with the Child Jesus. Several of these icons are still venerated today, the most famous of which hangs in the Church of St. Mary Major in Rome. St. Luke is the patron saint of many trades including artists, painters, doctors, surgeons, and bachelors. His feast day is October 18th.

OCTOBER MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

THE HOLY ROSARY & THE SAINTS

"The experience of the Saints bears witness to it: this popular Marian prayer [the Holy Rosary] is a precious spiritual means to grow in intimacy with Jesus, and to learn at the school of the Blessed Virgin always to fulfill the divine will. To be apostles of the Rosary... it is necessary to experience personally the beauty and depth of this prayer which is simple and accessible to everyone. It is first of all necessary to let the Blessed Virgin take one by the hand to contemplate the Face of Christ: a joyful, sorrowful and glorious Face. Those who, like Mary and with her, cherish and ponder the mysteries of Jesus assiduously, increasingly assimilate his sentiments and are conformed to him".

(Excerpt from the Meditation of Pope Benedict XVI, On the Recitation of the Holy Rosary, October 19, 2008).

Sunday, October 29

Monsignor Wach has asked all of the apostolates of the Institute of Christ the King to hold a Special Collection supporting the formation of the Institute's future priests and the International seminary in Gricigliano, Italy. The Institute continues to grow worldwide as do the number of seminarians, among them are many Americans.

Any amount is helpful and most appreciated
