ORATORY CLERGY

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Peace be with you

Today, we witness what Jesus did on the evening of the day He triumphantly rose from the dead.

He walked through the closed doors of the Upper Room where the apostles were together out of fear and He said to them, "Peace be with you!"

Jesus had come down from heaven to earth and had sacrificed His life to give us peace, but it was a special kind of peace, one the world can't give or take away. "Not as the world gives peace do I give it," Jesus had said during the Last Supper. The peace Jesus leaves and gives us is not the mere absence of war or conflict, but harmony with God through the forgiveness of sins. Without this type of peace, no other form can endure, because it is sin that destroys interior peace, the peace of the home, the peace of friendship, the peace of communities, the peace of nations.

And so Jesus, wasting absolutely no time to set the next stage of His peace plan in motion, on the night of His resurrection divinely empowered the apostles as His peacemakers to bring that gift, and the joy to which it leads, to the ends of the earth.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Welcome to St. Patrick's Oratory

Dear Visitors: You are warmly welcomed by the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest, Canon Antoine Boucheron, and the lay faithful of this parish. The Institute celebrates the usus antiquior (ancient usage) or the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the Classical Roman Rite known as the Extraordinary Form. Our prayer is that you will come to appreciate and participate fully in the beautiful liturgy, sacraments, and the spiritual and social life of this community. Canon Boucheron will be happy to meet you and answer any questions.

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary entry 699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy.

In all, St. Faustina recorded 14 revelations from Jesus concerning His desire for this feast.

Nevertheless, Divine Mercy Sunday is NOT a feast based solely on St. Faustina's revelations. Indeed, it is not primarily about St. Faustina — nor is it altogether a new feast. The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter. The title "Divine Mercy Sunday" does, however, highlight the meaning of the day.

To fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy, we should:

1. Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter.
2. Sincerely repent of all our sins.
3. Place our complete trust in Jesus.
4. Go to Confession, preferably before the Feast.
5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast.
6. Venerate the Image of The Divine Mercy.
7. Be merciful to others, through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf.

To receive the Extraordinary Graces of this Feast, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday by making a good confession beforehand staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy.

The plenary indulgence is granted (under the usual conditions of a sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and a prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on Divine Mercy Sunday, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, recite the Our Father and the Creed, and add a devout prayer (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in thee!).

SEMI-ANNUAL SEMINARY COLLECTION - SUNDAY, APRIL 14

On Sunday, April 14 there will be a special collection taken up at all Masses for the Institute's seminary in Gricigliano. Monsignor Wach has asked all the apostolates of the Institute of Christ the King to hold a Special Collection supporting the formation of the Institute's future priests. The Institute continually attracts faithful young men to consider the Priesthood and the number of seminarians continues to grow with one-third from America. Any amount is greatly appreciated!

O LORD, SEND US PRIESTS! O LORD, SEND US HOLY PRIESTS! O LORD, SEND US MANY HOLY PRIESTS & RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS!

The Regina Caeli replaces the Angelus from Easter to the Octave of Pentecost.

It is recited at 6 a.m., Noon, and 6 p.m. each day.

WALK TO MARY

Saturday, May 4

6:00 a.m. Mass at St. Patrick's Oratory

A group from St. Patrick's Oratory will be participating in the Walk to Mary again this year. The faithful will walk the 21-mile pilgrimage together with Canon Boucheron from the National Shrine of St. Joseph located at St. Norbert College, to Our Lady's Shrine in Champion (Robinsonville), WI., singing and praying along the way, behind the procession crucifix and banners. If it's too difficult to walk the entire 21-miles, there are several opportunities to join the pilgrims Enroute. Organizers and participants alike appreciate the robust presence of the St. Patrick's Oratory in the Walk to Mary each Year.

Our Group will meet at approximately 7:15 a.m. under our banners at the National Shrine of St. Joseph.

A New Church Directory is Coming!

St. Patrick's Oratory Photo Directory

Help Needed

St. Patrick's Oratory has seen so many new faces over the last few years. We would like to update our church Photo Directory by having all registered members included in the 2024 Directory. Because of increased costs from our previous provider, we have decided to create our own Directory. This will allow us to offer more affordable photo packages and flexibility in scheduling sessions. This year we will be using Oratory member Beth Relyea Photography and will be printing our Directory. Our photo sessions will run from July 7-14, which includes two Sundays. More details and the sign-up link will come in early June.

We will need help in several areas to produce this Photo Directory (reviewing photos with families, designing the Directory, getting business sponsors, checking in people, organizing photos, printing details, etc.). Getting involved in this project is a great way to help out and meet new people in our Oratory! Please let Sue Vanevenhoven (920-764-0550 or vanevenhovens@sbcglobal.net) if you are able to help. Thank you!

Living the Truth in Charity

Easter 2024

Dear Faithful,

A blessed and joyous Easter to each and every one of you! On behalf of our Institute's Prior General, Monsignor Gilles Wach, I offer you our best prayerful wishes for a joyous celebration of Our Lord's Resurrection and a spiritually fruitful Eastertide. Monsignor Wach looks forward to visiting the apostolates of the Institute's American Province in late May and June, when he will also preside at the national retreat for the Society of the Sacred Heart.

With sincere gratitude, I thank you very much for your continued generosity in this year's Lenten Appeal for the operations of the Institute's American province. Thanks to your remarkable response, over $154,507 was raised for the American province, with a few more donations still coming in. Deo gratias!

If the Institute's local apostolates are like the branches of a tree, then the U.S. Provincial Headquarters is like the trunk which sustains the growth of the branches. Headquarters provides specific guidance and moral support for the clergy of the Institute, both canons and oblates, as to their individual and common well-being, as well as in the projects, challenges, and operations of the apostolates.

Our provincial leadership also manages the pre-seminary and oblate formation programs by which future seminarians and clerical oblate brothers are admitted to the vocational discernment program in the Institute's houses of formation. There also are requests for retreats and parish missions, invitations from Bishops to open new apostolates in their Dioceses, queries from lay faithful throughout the United States, as well as managing support for our newest national apostolate, Sacred Heart Retreat Center in Burlington, Wisconsin. The retreat center is currently undergoing building upgrades and restoration in view of welcoming souls across America seeking peace, spiritual nourishment and guidance.

In these and in so many other ways, your charitable contributions help our provincial headquarters to function properly as a national entity which can keep up with the growing need to spread the truth and charity of the reign of Christ the King in America. May God bless and reward you for your prayerful assistance and generous participation in this great work for the salvation of souls and the restoration of Catholic culture for future generations!

Gratefully mindful of you at the holy altar in my daily prayers during this Eastertide, I remain,

Faithfully yours in Christ the King,
