A Monstrance for Our Lord

Dear Faithful, St Paul's Oratory owned a Monstrance. Without being totally disrespectful of the Real Presence, it is a very simple monstrance: small, in a cheap metal, quite lame: without ornament... I found some old, antique, beautiful European Monstrance (I printed some samples, visible in the church basement). But, beauty, craftsmanship, sterling silver, antiquity...means a hefty price tag. (some more hefty than others...)

It is never too much for Our Lord.

If you want to participate to this purchase, feel free to address your special donations and specify the intention.

Canon Pierre Dumain.

Eastertide House Blessing.

Did you know that during Eastertide, the houses are blessed with a special water? The Lustral Water, drawn out from the Baptistry on Easter Vigil, before the Sacred Oils are infused in the Baptismal Water.

If you desire your house to be blessed, please send a request to stpaul.warren@institute-christ-king.org

On Sunday, April 21st, the St Thomas Aquinas School Drama class will be holding a bake sale after the 8:00am and 10:30am Masses, to help defray the cost of their set materials. You are welcome to stop buy and pick up some of the yummy goods the students themselves are making! Thank you for supporting their efforts, and be sure to come see the show:

Tarcisius's Teaching. Which Missal? -1

Many faithful, being new at the Latin Mass, ask Canon Dumain where to find this or that Mass in their missal... and when they do not find it: why their missal have not the text of this Mass? Or even, which missal is the best?... Canon, being French and facetious, regularly answers that the only missal he uses is all in Latin, and he does not know a lot about the different English translation and version. Knowing his love for the language of Shakespeare, it is preferable that he lets me talk about it... There is many Traditional Daily Missal, so which one is the best?

The St. Andrew Daily Missal? The New Roman Missal? The New Marian Missal for Daily Mass? The Angelus Press Daily Missal? The Baronius Press Daily Missal?

None of them are perfect. If one was the perfect pick, the other will not exist. So, before analyzing them one by one, let's resume what we are looking for, and why there is these differences.

When buying a Missal for the Latin Mass, consider the following information:

- Date of Publication:
- Latin and English:
- Daily, Sunday or Booklet:

The most important is the date of publication.

Any Missal published between 1945 to 1962, are useful the most part of the year, but there is exception, because things have changed during those year...

When buying a 1962 Missal of the "Latin Mass", beware about Pius XII's reform of the Roman Calendar which eliminated more than half of the Church's Vigils and almost all of the traditional Octaves. The machinations of Msgr. Annibale Bugnini were well on their way in the middle 1950's with the planned reforms given to us by Pope John XXIII in the Missal of 1962 revisions.

There was a removal of traditional Octaves, a simplification of Feasts, the liturgical treasures of Holy Week were sabotaged and brought major changes to the liturgies of Holy Week in 1955, including virtual elimination of Commemorations and Votive masses such as Feast of the Expectation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Rorate Caeli, Holy Face, the Mass against the Heathen...
