Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

Death, afflictions and other disasters which make up a large part of life and which are punishments for sin become, through the gentle mercy of God, so many steps to climb up to Heaven, so many means to grow in grace, and so many merits to gain glory.

Therefore, it is right to say that we should love poverty, hunger, thirst, sadness, sickness, persecution and death, because they are just punishments for our faults, punishments so tempered by divine mercy that their very bitterness becomes something to be loved. (T.L.G. Book 3, Ch. 1; O. V, pp. 110-111)

2024 Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal Live the Mission with a Generous Heart

Blessed are those who are poor ... meek ... hungry ... merciful.
Mt 5:1-12

The word beatitude literally means "happiness" or "blessed-ness." What is the significance of Jesus' beatitudes, and why are they so central to His teaching? The beatitudes respond to the natural desire for happiness that God has placed in every heart. Jesus' beatitudes also confront us with important choices concerning the life we pursue here on earth and the use we make of the gifts that God has entrusted to us.

Thank you to those who have already made a gift to the ACA!
