FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

Dear Faithful,

Let us walk to Holy Hill on June 4th! It is with enthusiasm that Saint Stanislaus Parish and Oratory will be connected with the largest annual pilgrimage of Pentecost from Paris to Chartres in France. The specificity of this pilgrimage is to be a grand route of Christendom.

Nowadays, secularism claims that the Gospel of Jesus Christ cannot have any influence on the life of human beings who live in society. This denial is the origin of the tragedy of the modern times: worldwide wars, millions of aborted babies, genocides and conflicts of all kinds. No society can institutionalize the breaking of Divine Law and expect to receive God's continued blessing and protection.

Our pilgrimage of Christendom on Pentecost Vigil (June 4th) recalls to our world that the Kingship of Christ begins in this world and finds fulfillment in the next world. Let us all walk to the Basilica of Our Lady of Good Help to call on our world the peace of Christ the King!

Very truly yours,

Canon Benoît Jayr

Rector

There is a display in the south vestibule with pamphlets explaining the enthronement and application forms. If you are interested, please complete one of the forms and get it to the parish office. You can drop off the completed form yourself, drop it in the Sunday collection or leave it on the table in the vestibule.

ROGATION DAYS

This week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday are the Rogation Days. It is on these three days that the litany of the saints is recited, usually in procession. These days are also called the Minor Litanies, in contrast to April 25th which is called the Greater Litany. The purpose of the Minor Litanies is both to prepare for Ascension Thursday and to pray for good crops. This tradition goes back at least to the 5th century, with a procession in Rome that ended at St. Peter's for Mass.

Our practice, at St. Stanislaus, is to begin the rosary early (11:30 AM) in order to leave time for the litany of the saints to be recited before the start of Mass. The litany is recited during an indoor procession around the church.
