FROM THE RECTOR: CANON MATTHEW TALARICO

Dear faithful of the Shrine,

Last June our Prior General, Monsignor Gilles Wach, conferred the cassock upon Abbé Taylor Chavez as a clerical oblate. The oblates serve the Church as brothers in the family of the Institute. Since, unlike other languages, English does not have a particular word to designate a cleric who is not in religious vows before the diaconate, the term Abbé has been adopted from the French for addressing the oblates.

Abbé Taylor has served very well at the Shrine in the capacity of sacristan and takes care of many liturgical duties. At this point, he will now be sent to join our community at St. Francis de Sales Oratory in St. Louis, Missouri, where he will proceed to another step in his formation. With heartfelt appreciation, we thank Abbé Taylor Chavez for his presence and dedication at the Shrine and assure him of our prayers for him in a special way as he transfers to his new assignment in St. Louis.

Everyone is invited to join us on Sunday, February 5, at St. Benedict Hall in the priory lower level after the 10:00am Mass for cake and refreshments, as we express gratitude and best wishes for Abbé Taylor. May our Infant King reward him for his service and bless him in his future apostolate!

Rev. Canon Matthew Talarico

Rector

COFFEE HOUR

ON THE BLESSING OF CANDLES AND PROCESSION ON CANDLEMAS DAY

On this day, Holy Mother Church blesses Candles—one of the three principal Blessings observed by the Church during the year; the other two are those of the Ashes and of the Palms.

In order to give uniformity to the three great Blessings of the year, the Church prescribes for that of the Candles the same color for the vestments as is used in the Blessing of Ashes and formerly used in the Blessing of Palms—namely, violet.

St. Anselm bids us consider three things in the blessed Candle: the wax, the wick, and the flame. The wax, he says, which is the production of the virgin bee, is the Flesh of Our Lord; the wick, which is within, is His Soul; the flame, which burns on the top, is His Divinity.

During the distribution of the Candles, the Church, filled with emotion at the sight of these sacred symbols, which remind Her of Jesus, shares in the joyous transports of the aged Simeon, who, whilst holding the Child in his arms, confessed Him to be the Light of the Gentiles. She chants his sweet Canticle, separating each verse by an Antiphon, which is formed out of the last words of Simeon: A Light to the revelation of the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel.

Let us listen to St. Bernard: "On this day the Virgin-Mother brings the Lord of the Temple into the Temple of the Lord; Joseph presents to the Lord a Son, Who is not his own, but the Beloved Son of that Lord Himself, and in Whom He is well pleased; Simeon, the just man, acknowledges Him for Whom he had been so long waiting; Anna, too, the widow, acknowledges Him. The Procession of this solemnity was first made by these four, which afterwards was to be made, to the joy of the whole earth, in every place and by every nation. Let us not be surprised at its then being so little; for He they carried was little! Besides, all who were in it were just, and Saints, and perfect—there was not a single sinner."
