FROM THE VICE RECTOR: CANON ANDREW TODD

Dear faithful of the Shrine,

Next Sunday we will have our St. Joseph table. The history of this tradition has its source to Sicilian roots. The Sicilian people were struck with a famine, they prayed ceaselessly to St. Joseph to deliver them. They were delivered and in thanksgiving to St. Joseph, an annual table was made to the foster-father of Christ to remember this great favor granted to them.

Do not forget to pray the St. Joseph prayer composed by St. Francis de Sales that we recite everyday after Mass.

St. Joseph most strong, pray for us

PRACTICES DURING LENT

Let, then, the Children of the Church courageously observe the Lenten practices of penance. Peace of conscience is essential to Christian life; and yet it is promised to none but truly penitent souls. Lost innocence is to be regained by the humble confession of the sin, when it is accompanied by the absolution of the Priest; but let the Faithful be on their guard against the dangerous error, which would persuade them that they have nothing to do when once pardoned. Let them remember the solemn warning given them by the Holy Ghost in the sacred scriptures: "Be not without fear about sin forgiven!" [Eccclus. v. 5]. Our confidence of our having been forgiven should be in proportion to the change or conversion of our heart the greater our present detestation of our past sins, and the more earnest our desire to do penance for them for the rest of our lives, the better founded is our confidence that they have been pardoned. "Man knoweth not", as the same holy Volume assures us, "whether he be worthy of love or hatred" [Eccles. ix. 1]; but he that keeps up within him the spirit of penance, has every reason to hope that God loves him.

The courageous observance of the Church's precept of Fasting and Abstaining during Lent must be accompanied by those two other eminently good works, to which God so frequently urges us in the Scripture: Prayer and Alms-deeds. Just as under the term Fasting the Church comprises all kinds of mortification; so under the word Prayer, she includes all those exercises of piety whereby the soul holds intercourse with her God. More frequent attendance at the services of the Church, assisting daily at Mass, spiritual reading, meditation upon eternal truths and the Passion, hearing sermons, and, above all, the approaching the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist, - these are the chief means whereby the Faithful should offer to God the homage of Prayer, during this holy Season. ~Dom Gueranger The Liturgical Year
