FROM THE VICE RECTOR: CANON ANDREW TODD

Dear faithful of the Shrine,

A quick reminder for today: The faithful are invited to approach the communion rail to receive a palm. In receiving the palm, it is customary to kiss first the palm then the hand of the celebrant. Procession with palms During the procession the blessed palm branches are held in the hand. For the ancient Jews, this was a sign of joy. During the singing of the Passion from the Gospel of St. Matthew, the faithful should hold their palms in their hands, and, by this emblem of triumph, protest against the insults offered to Jesus by His enemies.

PRACTICE DURING PASSIONTIDE AND HOLY WEEK

Let us reflect upon the love and affection of the Son of God, who has treated His creatures with such unlimited confidence, lived their own life, spent His three and thirty years amidst them, not only humbly and peaceably, but in going about doing good [Acts i. 38]. And now this life of kindness, condescension, and humility, is to be cut short by the disgraceful death, which none but slaves endured: the death of the cross.

Let us consider, on the one side, this sinful people, who, having no crimes to lay to Jesus' charge, accuse Him of his benefits, and carry their detestable ingratitude to such a pitch as to shed the Blood of this innocent and divine Lamb; and then, let us turn to this Jesus, the Just by excellence, and see Him become a prey to every bitterest suffering: His Soul sorrowful even unto death [St. Matt. 26:38]; weighed down by the malediction of our sins; drinking even to the very dregs the chalice He so humbly asks His Father to take from Him; and lastly, let us listen to His dying words: 'My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?' [Ibid. xxvii. 46]. This it is that fills the Church with her immense grief; this it is that she proposes to our consideration; for she knows that, if we once rightly understood the sufferings of her Jesus, our attachments to sin must needs be broken, for, by sin, we make our selves guilty of the crime we detest in these Jews.

Let us hope that, by God's mercy, the holy time we are now entering upon will work such a happy change in us, that, on the day of judgment, we may confidently fix our eyes on Him we are now about to contemplate crucified by the hands of sinners. The death of Jesus puts the whole of nature in commotion; the midday sun is darkened, the earth is shaken to its very foundations, may it be that our hearts, too, be moved, and pass from indifference to fear, from fear to hope, and, at length, from hope to love; so that, having gone down, with our Crucified, to the very depths of sorrow, we may deserve to rise again with Him unto light and joy, beaming with the brightness of His Resurrection, and having within ourselves the pledge of a new life!

Fasting and Abstinence: Rules & Practice:

- Catholics between the ages of 18 & 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday.
- Fasting has been defined by the Church as the partaking of only 1 full meal and of 2 smaller meals which if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity.
- All Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent. Abstinence forbids the use of meat, and soups made of meat. Besides those outside the age limits, those of unsound mind, the sick, the frail, pregnant or nursing women according to need for meat or nourishment, manual laborers according to need, may be excused from the law of fast and abstinence. It is prudent to discuss the matter with one's confessor or director.
