FROM THE VICE RECTOR: CANON ANDREW TODD

Dear faithful of the Shrine,

Today we celebrate the External Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Dom Gueranger in his Liturgical Year reminds us of the symbolism and richness of the feast:

Concerning the procession which regularly should follow the Mass, we remember how the Israelites revered the Ark of the Covenant which was the Presence of God among them. When they carried on their victorious marches, the Ark went before, born by the Levites in the midst of a cloud of incense, accompanied by the sound of musical instruments and of the songs and shouts of the multitude.

We Christians have a treasure far more precious, for in the Eucharist we possess God Himself. Let us feel a holy pride in forming His escort and extolling His triumphs, while He is in our midst.
