FROM THE SEMINARY: ABBÉ GERALD BELL

Dear faithful of the Shrine,

My name is Abbé Gerald Bell. I come from a large family in Louisville, Kentucky; I have 15 brothers and sisters. I studied Industrial Engineering at the University of Louisville and after I finished in August 2015, I left to join the Institute's pre-seminary candidacy program. I spent about one year at St. Francis de Sales Oratory in St. Louis and then I started at the seminary in September 2016. I think my favorite thing about the seminary so far is the constant reminder of our obligation to live a holy life. Our superiors not only remind us daily of this obligation but they give us the means of fulfilling it: daily Mass, constant availability for confession (we could go everyday if we wanted to, like St. Francis de Sales, but I don't think it is frequently recommended), spiritual conferences, solemnized liturgy for the Divine Office and many more sanctifying means. I really enjoyed my time here in Chicago and I appreciate the experience of learning a little bit more about life in the apostolate. Please keep me and all the seminarians and priests of the Institute in your prayers. Be assured of my own prayers and may God bless you.

In Christ the King,
 Abbé Bell
