FROM THE RECTOR: CANON MICHAEL STEIN

Dear Oratory Faithful,

A week of feasts, a week of graces... These past few days at the Oratory have been rhythmmed by Solemn Liturgies: Christ the King, All Saints, and All Souls. The entire Church, Church Militant, Church Suffering, and Church Triumphant, has been deployed before our eyes. Let us continue to march on this earth guided by the examples of the saints and motivated to offer our suffering for the Poor Souls. I encourage you to pray for our country and we will have our Church open for perpetual visits to the Blessed Sacrament on Election Day. Miracles of grace are obtained by prayer and sacrifice. Ite ad Joseph!

Wednesday night 7 pm classes start November 9: teenage catechism is the first and third Wednesday of the month and children's catechism from ages 7-12 is the second and fourth Wednesday of the month. First Communion and Confirmation classes will be on alternating Sundays after the 11 am Mass. The complete catechism schedule starts November 9.

Spirituality: Peaceful Penance... things you might not think about concerning the Poor Souls...

The souls in purgatory truly suffer: they suffer pain in reparation for sins committed and they suffer the longing of Heaven. But, this suffering is peaceful. This suffering is without rebellion. These souls died in a state of grace. They are now incapable of sinning. Their will is in perfect conformity with the will of God.

There is no anguish of their fallen nature, there is no disorder of their passions. They love their state in purgatory as received from the hand of God and the necessary passage to Heaven. May they be our models when we suffer. Let us seek that same conformity of will and emulate their peaceful penance.

Daily Prayer to St. Joseph written by St. Francis de Sales

Glorious St. Joseph, spouse of Mary, grant us thy paternal protection, we beseech thee by the heart of Jesus Christ. O thou, whose power extends to all our necessities and can render possible for us the most impossible things, open thy fatherly eyes to the needs of thy children. In the trouble and distress which afflicts us, we confidently have recourse to thee. Deign to take under thy charitable charge this important and difficult matter, cause of our worries. Make its happy outcome be for God's glory and for the good of His devoted servants. Amen.

MORE thank yous!

Dear Oratory Faithful and Friends, Yesterday was our largest Saturday Volunteer Work day yet! You removed a dead tree, trimmed branches, replaced broken grating along the base of the Church, polished sacristy silver and brass, cleaned the church for two weddings, prepared the Social Hall and you cleaned from top to bottom the future catechism rooms in the Rectory basement, preparing the walls for paint. With our Prayerful Gratitude...

Volunteers Needed! You can find project updates in the bulletin and on Social Media.

Volunteer Carpenters: We are in need of volunteer carpenters to restore the wooden floors of the Rectory to their original beauty. This requires: sanding, putting nail holes, and applying stain and finish. There are floor projects, staircase projects, and trim replacements. If you are interested please contact the office at: (313) 784-9152 or email: sjdetroit@institute-christ-king.org

Volunteer Electrician: We are in need of a volunteer electrician to help with a few small projects on the campus; notably installing additional outlets, lights and running new wire in the walls. If you are interested please contact the office at: (313) 784-9152 or email: sjdetroit@institute-christ-king.org

Why help? How can you help?

Catholicism is the religion of the Incarnation. God became man. God sanctified the material world and called it to participate in rendering Him glory and honor. Our churches are sacred places and we will be working very hard to repair the steeple and stonework. The property and rectory attached are the patrimony of the Church and we have a holy duty to restore and maintain them. It is also a debt we owe to our ancestors in the Faith who have given & labored over the course of history to extend the reign of Christ and to provide a spiritual home for the generations to come. You participate in this great work by your prayers, by your support, by your talents and time.

Parking Announcement: When you attend the Friday evening 6 pm Holy Hour, please park in the smaller lot adjacent the Rectory. Thank you!

Organizing our Volunteers & Providing Spirituality

Dear Men and Women of the Oratory, in the very near future we will be offering information and sign-up sheets to be an active volunteer at St. Joseph. To you will be entrusted to good order and cleanliness of the Church, and Hall, some projects of the Rectory, ushering, hospitality, and event infrastructure. Every 1st Friday Mass will be offered for you and your intentions and we will have monthly devotions to Our Lady and Saint Joseph for the women and men.

Singing is praying twice! Join St. Joseph Cappella!
