St. Teresa of Avila (October 15)

Born in Avila, Spain, in 1515 -- the time of Columbus' discovery of America and the beginning of the Protestant Reformation -- a chaotic century, Teresa was raised in a somewhat strict household by pious and honorable Catholic parents. However, this did little to temper Teresa's rebellious and fun-loving nature.

As a teen, she was very vain and addicted to romance novels. Placed in the convent by her father after her mother's death, she learned to practice mental prayer -- keeping Jesus present within her at every moment. "Prayer is an act of love, words are not needed. Even if sickness distracts from thoughts, all that is needed is the will to love," she said.

Most people know the outline of Teresa's life. It started first in the convent, from her early days where she was surrounded by great laxity, to her attempts to keep a stricter rule for herself; then the reforming of the Carmelite Order which brought about the establishment of many new convents; her increasing ecstatic experiences and ultimately the penning of great theological works based on mental prayer as a means for attaining sainthood. Her spiritual life was based on obedience, the deepest love of God and a separation from attachments both human and material.

What many don't know is that St. Teresa was charming, quite tender, beautiful, and humorous. This was a woman who slept on boards like a beggar but expelled a princess from one of her convents; she talked to duchesses as an equal, and once scolded a king. She even amusingly chided her great Friend, Jesus Christ, who gave her difficulties to which she responded, "no wonder You have so few friends." It was her power and clarity of thought which made her a great teacher of spirituality and an authority in spiritual and mystical theology.

Maxims of the saint:

"Accustom yourself continually to make many acts of love, for they enkindle and melt the soul."

"Take God for your spouse and friend and walk with Him continually, and you will not sin, will learn to love, and the things you must do will work out prosperously for you."

"Remember that you have only one soul; that you have only one death to die; that you have only one life. ... If you do this, there will be many things about which you care nothing."

"Be gentle to all and stern with yourself."

"Let nothing disturb thee; Let nothing dismay thee; All things pass; God never changes. Patience attains all that it strives for. He who has God Finds he lacks nothing; God alone suffices."

ST. JOSEPH ORATORY ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE TO THE SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF GOOD HELP

St. Joseph Oratory's fifth Annual Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in Robinsonville (4047 Chapel Drive, New Franken, WI 54229) will be held on Saturday, October 24, 2009.

Invoking the powerful intercession of Our Lady we march to her Shrine for the spreading of the Kingdom of Christ the King. We desire that the Catholic Faith restore every aspect of our lives and of society. This pilgrimage is made especially in reparation for unjust laws and practices and for the spreading of the Traditional Latin Liturgy.

The apparition of Our Lady of Good Help in Robinsonville has received conditional approval from the local Bishop since the Chapel was dedicated. The Bishop himself comes as a pilgrim at least once a year, on August 15th. The Pilgrimage begins with Holy Mass at 8:45 a.m. at St. Joseph Oratory located at 1825 S Riverside Dr. in Green Bay. At 10:30 a.m. we meet at Holy Cross Church, 3001 Bay Settlement Rd. to begin our 8 mile long walk. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament at the Shrine will conclude the event. Please dress accordingly for outdoor conditions. Bring your friends and family to thank the Queen of Heaven for her visit to this area.

WHAT HAPPENED 150 YEARS AGO IN ROBINSONVILLE

Adele Joseph Brice came to Green Bay peninsula from Belgium with her parents in 1855. Despite the loss of an eye as a young child and a very meager education, Adele was known for her charming personality, fervent piety, simple religious ways and her prayer life to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The stories about the apparitions of Adele have been passed down by the people in the area for the last 150 years:

In the first apparition, Adele saw a lady in white standing between two trees. Adele was frightened and stood still. The vision slowly disappeared, leaving a white cloud after it.

In the second apparition, Adele was again on her way to Mass at Bay Settlement. She was accompanied by her sister, Isabel and a neighbor woman. When they came near the same trees, the same lady in white was at the place where Adele had seen her before. Later her confessor told Adele that if it were a heavenly messenger, she would see it again. He said that it would not harm her, but to ask in God's name who it was and what it desired of her.

Then, on October 9, 1859 came the final apparition. As they approached the hallowed spot, Adele could see the beautiful lady, clothed in dazzling white, with a yellow sash around her waist. She had a crown of stars around her head. "In God's name who are you and what do you want of me?" asked Adele.

"I am the Queen of Heaven (...) Gather the children in this wild country and teach them what they should know for salvation (...) Teach them their catechism, how to sign themselves with the sign of the Cross and how to approach the sacraments; that is what I wish you to do. Go and fear nothing. I will help you."

The manifestation of Our Lady then lifted her hands, as though beseeching a blessing for those at her feet, and slowly vanished, leaving Adele overwhelmed and prostrate on the ground. When Adele got up, she immediately went about fulfilling this mission. She devoted herself to this mission until her death in 1896.

After the apparition, Adele began catechizing the children. Teaching from house to house, up and down the Green Bay Peninsula, she would travel as much as 50 miles on foot. Weather conditions, fatigue, lack of education, dangers of the forest and ridicule did not deter Adele's determination to fulfill her duty to Blessed Mother Mary's request.

Eventually, she was joined by several young women from the area. St. Mary's Boarding Academy was founded near the site of the apparitions. With the assistance of the Belgian community, Sister Adele built a school, chapel and convent on land donated in the town of Robinsonville. Today the town is called New Franklin.

Over the years, while Sister Adele and her religious community suffered trials, persecutions and set-backs, they were the means through which miraculous events and healings were manifested. One of the most spectacular of these events occurred in 1871, when the shrine's grounds and buildings were virtually untouched by the merciless fury and devastation of the Great Peshtigo Fire. Many of the families from the area came to the church and were kept safe there from the fire.

The school was closed in 1928, but since 1861, thousands of pilgrimages have been made to the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help to honor the Mother of God and implore her help. Since 1871, on August 15th, the feast of the Assumption, large crowds gather to celebrate the day with a rosary processions and an outdoor celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
