INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

We are all sick

Jesus is everywhere, always ready to assist us; at any time and in any place we can find comfort and strength through Him. We can ask him directly, "Jesus, up until now, I have not been able to forgive this or that evil which I have endured. I know it is like leprosy in my soul, but I have the faith of the centurion and I am convinced that you, Jesus, can bring peace and the strength of forgiveness. The forgiveness I have not been able to give, Jesus, please now form in my soul and I will be cured and freed of the weight of this resentment."

If we never forget that Jesus is near us, we will be strong enough to do what is right. Under all circumstances if we remember his presence, and see His face in our minds, a glance from His eyes will rest upon us and heal us from all our spiritual diseases by His grace.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Sunday, January 22, 2017 - Third Sunday after Epiphany

St. Raymond of Peñafort, January 23

While still young, Raymond of Peñafort taught humanities in Barcelona, having been gifted, quite young, various intellectual talents. Later he went to Bologna where he applied himself to the study of canon and civil law. He there received the Doctor's cap, and became an able interpreter of the sacred canons. He occupied a chair of canon law in the university for three years and published a treatise on ecclesiastical legislation which still exists in the Vatican Library.

Berengarius, the Bishop of Barcelona visited Bologna in order to see him; after much pleading, he induced Raymond to accompany him to Barcelona. He was shortly after made Canon and Provost of that Church, and became a model to the clergy and people by his uprightness, modesty, learning and meekness. His tender devotion to the Holy Mother of God was extraordinary, and he never neglected an opportunity of zealously promoting the devotion and honor which are due to her.

Attracted to the Dominicans, he made his solemn profession in the Order of the Friars Preachers at 45. He devoted himself to practicing charity toward the poor, and this mainly to the captives who had been taken by the infidels. It was by his exhortation that St Peter Nolasco (who was his penitent) was induced to devote all his riches to this work. The Blessed Virgin appeared to Peter, as also to blessed Raymond and to James the First, King of Aragon, telling them that it would be exceedingly pleasing to herself and her divine Child, if an Order of Religious men were instituted whose mission would be to deliver captives from the tyranny of infidels. Hence they founded the Order of our Lady of Mercy for the Ransom of Captives; blessed Raymond drew up certain rules of life, which were adapted to the spirit and vocation of the Order.

Raymond was called to Rome by the Pope, who appointed him to be his Chaplain, Penitentiary, and Confessor. The reputation of the saint for juridical science decided the pope to employ Raymond of Peñafort's talents in rearranging and codifying the canons of the Church. He rewrote and condensed decrees that had been multiplying for centuries, and which were contained in some twelve or fourteen collections. He worked many miracles; among which is the most celebrated one. When returning to Barcelona from the island of Majorca, he spread his cloak upon the sea, and sailed upon it, in the space of six hours, the distance of 160 miles, where having reached his convent, entered it through the closed doors. At length, when he had almost reached the age of 100, he slept in the Lord, in the year of the Incarnation 1275. He was canonized by Pope Clement VIII.

Calendar of Upcoming Events

Sunday, January 29

Confirmation Mass at St. Patrick's Oratory with his Excellency, Bishop David L. Ricken, DD, JCL. - 10:00 a.m.

NOVENA PRAYER TO THE INFANT KING

(from January 17th to 25th)

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee, and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself.

All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph, and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

Short Prayer to the Most Holy Name

O sweet Name of Jesus, holy above all names in heaven and on earth, and to which every knee, both of men and of angels in heaven, on earth and in hell bends. You are the way of the just, the glory of the saints, the hope of those in need, the balm of the sick, the love of the devout and the consolation of those that suffer.

O, Jesus be to me a help and a protector so that your Name may be blessed for all times...

--Thomas A. Kempis

Act of Reparation to the Holy Name of Jesus

"O Jesus, my Savior and Redeemer, Son of the living God, behold, we kneel before Thee and offer Thee our reparation; we would make amends for all the blasphemies uttered against Thy holy name, for all the injuries done to Thee in the Blessed Sacrament, for all the irreverence shown toward Thine immaculate Virgin Mother, for all the calumnies and slanders spoken against Thy spouse, the holy Catholic and Roman Church. O Jesus, who has said: "If you ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it to you," we pray and beseech Thee for all our brethren who are in danger of sin; shield them from every temptation to fall away from the true faith; save those who are even now standing on the brink of the abyss; to all of them give light and knowledge of the truth, courage and strength for the conflict with evil, perseverance in faith and active charity! For this do we pray, most merciful Jesus, in Thy name, unto God the Father, with whom Thou livest and reignest in the unity of the Holy Ghost world without end. Amen."

Confirmation Reception & Banquet

A reception, offered by the faithful of St. Patrick's Oratory, in honor of The Most Reverend David L. Ricken, DD, JCL, Bishop of Green Bay will follow the Confirmation and Mass on Sunday, January 29, 2017.

Due to the limited occupant capacity of O'Brien Hall, first priority is given to the confirmands, sponsors, and their families. Other members of the parish who wish to attend the reception and banquet are welcome. BUT ALL MUST CONTACT Canon Boucheron TODAY stating the number of people attending so food planning and the room capacity are respected. Thank You!

SPECIAL THANK YOU TO THE LMA

I would like to publicly express my gratitude and appreciation for the Latin Mass Association's financial help and advice over the years.

I am thankful for the LMA members' support of our efforts to address the Oratory's needs for Liturgical items, beautification and ultimately for the continued growth of the Oratory.

May the Good Lord richly recompense all those who help.
Canon Antoine Boucheron
