INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Go to the top!

In our faith we are called to struggle daily, whatever the rocks or boulders in our way, whether they are pride or selfishness, lust or discouragement, envy or judging of others, we have to struggle to ascend our personal Mt. Tabor, we have to fight for our personal transfiguration. That is why it is so important to pray, go to confession and Holy Communion.

If we do not do this, then we will move away from the Church. For we can both go up and go down a slope. We can spiritually progress, but we can also spiritually regress. We can be transfigured by the love of God or we can be disfigured by the love of sin. And like progress, regress is not sudden and dramatic, regress too is a slope, as we say, a slippery slope.

Let us therefore take heed and give God what He really wants from us -our hearts and minds spiritually progressing.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

THE IMMACULATE Heart of Mary

But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. Luke-2:19

Historically, devotion to Mary Most Holy in the form of her Immaculate Heart first occurs in the thirteenth century with St. Mechtilde, St. Gertrude, St. Bernardine of Siena and others. In the seventeenth century, St. Francis de Sales was an exponent of this devotion. But it was St. John Eudes the great apostle of the Immaculate Heart (1601-1680), who gave the decisive impulse to the practice.

In the same century, the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus came to light through St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, and her confessor, St. Claude de La Colombiere. As the devotion to the Sacred Heart spread, so did the devotion to the Immaculate Heart. Both St. Margaret Mary and St. Claude, were deeply dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary as well.

Beginning with Pope Pius VI, several popes incrementally spread the devotion, but in 1944 Pope Pius XII extended it to the whole Church, fixing the celebration on August 22. The feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary is celebrated on the Saturday following the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, which is moveable, always observed on a Friday, nineteen days after Pentecost Sunday.

Fatima and the Immaculate Heart of Mary The Five First Saturdays Devotion

The devotion of the Five First Saturdays, comes to us straight from heaven!

In 1917 The Blessed Mother appeared six times to three little shepherds, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta at Fatima, Portugal. She asked for conversion of life and the recitation of the Rosary so the world could have peace.

In the second apparition of Fatima, Our Lady showed the seers, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta, her heart encircled by thorns. Later, on December 10, 1925, in a private apparition to Sister Lucia, she asked for the devotion of reparation of the Five First Saturdays.

The Blessed Mother appeared alongside the Child Jesus who stood over a luminous cloud. Our Lady rested one hand on the Child's shoulder while she held on the other hand a heart pierced with thorns.

The Child said, "Have pity on the Heart of your Most Holy Mother which is covered with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment with no one to extract them with an act of reparation."

Our Lady expressed her request in the following words;

"See, my daughter, My Heart surrounded with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce me at every moment with blasphemies and ingratitude. You, at least, make sure to console me and announce that all those who for five months, on the first Saturdays, go to Confession, receive Communion, say five decades of the Rosary and keep me company for 15 minutes meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary, with the purpose of making reparation to Me, I promise to assist them at the hour of death with all the graces necessary for the salvation of their souls."

~ HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION ~

NOVENA to Our Lady of the Assumption

August 7th - 15th

Mary, Queen Assumed into Heaven, I rejoice that after years of heroic martyrdom on earth, thou hast at last been taken to the throne prepared for thee in Heaven by the Holy Trinity.

Lift my heart with thee in the glory of thy Assumption above the dreadful touch of sin and impurity. Teach me how small earth becomes when viewed from Heaven. Make me realize that death is the triumphant gate through which I shall pass to thy Divine Son, and that someday my body shall rejoin my soul in the unending bliss of Heaven.

From this earth, over which I tread as a pilgrim, I look to thee for help. I ask for this favor:

(Mention your request)

When my hour of death has come, lead me safely to the presence of Jesus to enjoy the vision of my God for all eternity together with thee.

BE A PART OF SOMETHING MORE

A few Sundays ago, a blue pamphlet was inserted in the weekly bulletin listing the many groups within St. Patrick's Oratory. Groups ranging from spiritual, social, fundraising, church and rectory help just to name a few. Many people desire to be more involved in their Church family, but didn't know how to go about it or even what was available. This important brochure will give you more direction and information, enabling you to consider what is offered and how you, your children or your entire family can be a part of something more. We are in the process of planning an "Informational Fair and Sweet Social" this fall to introduce members of the Oratory to the many different groups. Please look over the blue pamphlet and if interested, please fill it out and place it in the white box at either church entrance. If you need a Pamphlet, they are available at both entrances. Thank You!

A note from Canon Boucheron

Dear faithful of St. Patrick's Oratory, I would like to inform you that from Monday, August 7 to Wednesday, September 6, I will be on my home visit then attending the annual chapter meeting of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest.

During my absence; Father Frank Kriski will be here from August 7 through August 21, followed by Father Ronaldo Silva on August 22 through September 5. Please help make them feel welcomed!

We are grateful for the help of these wonderful Priests and welcome them wholeheartedly. Please pray for safe travels but especially for a fruitful chapter meeting. Be assured that I will remember your intentions in my daily prayers.
