INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Who is this man?

The man without a wedding garment is one who has learned about God and His Son, but has rejected them. He prefers to cling to his old ways, continuing in mistaken beliefs and bad behavior. He was offered the garment of Faith, but had no inclination to put it on.

The man without a wedding garment is one who received the Faith in Baptism, but allowed that faith to die for lack of charity – the love of God and the love of neighbor for the love of God. “For even if I have faith so as to remove mountains, but do not have charity, I am nothing.” God offered him the garment of Charity, but he refused to put it on.

The man without a wedding garment is one who received the Faith, loved God for a while, and then gave up Hope, turning from God’s ways to the ways of sin and eternal death – never even thinking to ask forgiveness of God in his heart.

The man without a wedding garment is any and all of these. We can only commend these souls to our prayers and good example. Just let us be sure that we never find ourselves in their place.

Let us be sure that we preserve the Faith as we have received it from those who have gone before us – ultimately from Jesus Christ and the Apostles – keeping that Faith untarnished and unscratched as though it were a precious jewel wrapped in silk.

Let us be sure that we preserve Hope, the knowledge that we will one day be with God in heaven if we but cooperate with His graces – nourishing that Hope by remaining habitually in the state of grace, doing nothing that would place us in the darkness outside.

Let us be sure that we preserve Charity, the love of God, by joining our love to His love very frequently in prayer and meditation – by doing good for our neighbors for the love of Him.

Finally, let us preserve in all of these things – Faith, Hope, and Charity – by frequently taking part in the wedding feast of the King’s Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. The invitation is not for just a day or a night. Rather we are invited to sit down at the sacrificial banquet of the Lord, each and every day that we are in the state of grace. Let’s be sure that we make no frivolous excuses, lest we find that through our coldness and carelessness we find ourselves cast into the darkness outside, where those who refuse the Lord’s invitation find themselves weeping and gnashing their teeth in eternity.

Quotations in Honor of the Most Holy Rosary

As October is the month dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, containing as it does the Feast of Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary on October 7, the commemoration of the victory of the Battle of Lepanto, it is fitting to contemplate some of the meditations of the saints, popes, and the Blessed Virgin's own recommendations on the Rosary:

"Dear Dominic, do you know which weapon the Blessed Trinity wants to use to reform the world? I want you to know that, in this warfare, the battering ram has always been the angelic Psalter, which is the foundation of the New Testament. Therefore if you wish to reach these hardened souls and win them over to God, preach my Psalter."--the Blessed Virgin to St. Dominic, 1214

"If you say the Rosary faithfully until death, I do assure you that, in spite of the gravity of your sins 'you shall receive a never-fading crown of glory.' Even if you are on the brink of damnation, even if you have one foot in hell, even if you have sold your soul to the devil as sorcerers do who practise black magic, and even if you are a heretic as obstinate as a devil, sooner or later you will be converted and will amend your life and will save your soul, if-- and mark well what I say-- if you say the Holy Rosary devoutly every day until death for the purpose of knowing the truth and obtaining contrition and pardon for your sins." -- St. Louis De Monfort

"The rosary is a powerful weapon to put the demons to flight and to keep oneself from sin... If you desire peace in your hearts, in your homes, and in your country, assemble each evening to recite the Rosary. Let not even one day pass without saying it, no matter how burdened you may be with many cares and labors."-- Pope Pius XI

"The Most Holy Virgin in these last times in which we live has given a new efficacy to the recitation of the Rosary to such an extent that there is no problem, no matter how difficult it is, whether temporal or above all, spiritual, in the personal life of each one of us, of our families, of the families of the world, or of the religious communities, or even of the life of peoples and nations, that cannot be solved by the Rosary. There is no problem I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary With the Holy Rosary, we will save ourselves, we will sanctify ourselves, we will console Our Lord and obtain the salvation of many souls." Sister Lucia, one of the seers of Fatima

"Our Lady has never refused me a grace through the recitation of the rosary."

"Love the Madonna and pray the rosary, for her rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today." St. (Padre) Pio of Pietrelcina
