INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

God or Caesar?

In today's Gospel, Jesus' enemies try to trick him into saying something that would be damaging to His good name. The Pharisees hated Rome and Roman Rule and were actually opposed to paying tax to Caesar. Their question to Jesus about paying tax to Caesar is a trick: If He says no, then they will denounce Him to the Roman authorities. If He says yes, then He will anger the people who were opposed to Rome.

Jesus did not give a theoretical answer. He asked to see a Roman coin; since they possessed and used Roman coins, it showed that they agreed in some sense with Roman Rule.

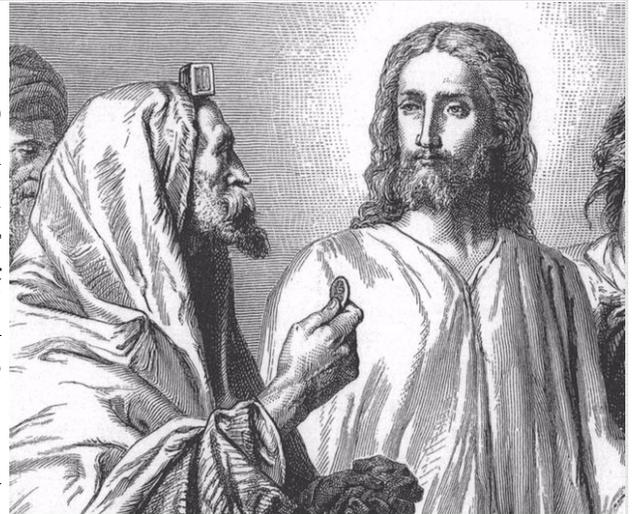

Someone showed Him a coin and Jesus asked, "What image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." Jesus said, "Render therefore to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's."

With this brilliant insight Jesus put an end to the idea that the state is the highest expression of both political and religious authority. In our modern times we have seen the tendency of the state to assume absolute power over its citizens, just as it occurred with totalitarianism in the 20th century.

Let us pray today that God will raise up by His Grace more God-fearing political leaders who will "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

Canon Antoine Boucheron

NOVEMBER, MONTH OF THE POOR SOULS

Please Continue to Pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory throughout the month of November

The Church remembers in her prayers, throughout the entire month of November, all of the faithfully departed who have still to be purified in Purgatory. The Church also invites the faithful to pray for the dead especially those of our family. Please don't forget to also pray for the deceased priests & bishops. We pray for them all because we confidently believe that the prayers at the altar are most profitable for them and the most effective means of releasing the souls of the faithful departed from their torments in Purgatory.

A Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

O most gentle Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the souls of Thy departed servants. Be not severe in Thy judgments, but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames. And do Thou, O Merciful Savior, send Thy holy angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light, and peace. Amen.

NOVEMBER 1-8: Visit the Cemetery, gain a plenary indulgence!

From November 1st through November 8th, a plenary indulgence (applicable only to the Poor Souls) is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray there, even if only mentally, for the departed. Indulgence granted under ordinary conditions.

ST. ANDREW OF AVELLINO, NOVEMBER 10

This celebrated Neapolitan missionary was born in 1521 on the Island of Sicily and baptized Lancellato. A very devout young man, he was also handsome and had to fend off attacks on his purity. He was ordained a priest of Naples, and received a Doctor of Law degree at 26. He spent much time hearing confessions and zealously shepherded souls, preaching often. Having been commissioned by the archbishop of Naples to reform a lax convent, he was attacked by a group of men who opposed the reform and was taken to a monastery to recover.

St. Andrew served in an ecclesiastic court and one day uttered a small lie in order to win a legal argument. Shortly after this incident he read "The mouth that utters untruth kills the soul." Being so moved by this scriptural quotation, he renounced his legal career and entered the Theatine Order founded by St. Cajetan, taking the name of Andrew to show his love for the cross. He founded many new Theatine monasteries, even serving as superior for some, and became a friend of St. Charles Borromeo who came to rely on Andrew's wisdom concerning church affairs.

The holy priest was said to suffer from a physical ailment but he never spoke of it. Once when he was carrying Holy Viaticum and bad weather had extinguished the lamps, he and a companion were not only kept dry in the downpour, but a heavenly light encircled them, guiding their steps in the stormy darkness.

Many sought out St. Andrew in order to settle cases of conscience, and his correspondence numbered in the thousands. Finally, worn out by work and old age, he was struck down in the sanctuary reciting the Prayers at the Foot of the Altar. Laid on a straw mattress, his whole body was convulsed in agony while a fiend in visible form advanced to seize his soul. But as his brethren prayed and wept, the voice of the Blessed Virgin was heard, bidding the saint's guardian angel to send the tempter back to hell. A calmness took a hold of the dying priest as he smiled at an image of Mary, and he breathed his last on November 10, 1608.

Patron against sudden deaths, strokes, of Naples and Sicily, and for a holy death, the good saint also teaches a lesson on being prepared, the mercy of the last sacraments, and lying. What is our attitude on speaking the truth? Examining our consciences will reveal our attitudes on this subject. And "A lying mouth kills the soul" should echo in our ears all through the day, as well of our love for Christ and His Cross.

November - The month of the poor souls

I will be able to bless the graves of your family or friends during the month of November, in Wisconsin of course.

If you are interested in having this done, please send me an e-mail or a note with the name of the deceased person and the location of the grave.
