SO MUCH MORE

You probably noticed that the name of the couple being married at Cana is not mentioned. Pretty strange, isn't it? It means that the event that took place at this wedding was much more important than the banquet itself, that it was something beyond this particular couple. No names are used except the names of Mary and Jesus because this particular marriage sets the stage for what happens between the Son of God and all humanity.

The Son of God, of course, is Jesus. Humanity is represented first by the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is the first of all mankind to be saved by Jesus through her Immaculate Conception. The rest of humanity is represented by the others who receive Mary's instruction at the wedding: "Do whatever He tells you."

In Cana, God wants to join Himself permanently to humanity in love so this can symbolically be called a marriage. And since His greatest sacrificial love is expressed on Calvary, Calvary can be considered the height of the marital commitment. So what is happening at this wedding is much, much bigger than the marriage of one couple.

May we perceive the glory of Divine Love -- and give ourselves to it today-- more fully than ever.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Sunday, January 14, 2018 - Second Sunday after Epiphany

MONTH OF THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS

The month of January is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. After the Blessed Virgin Mary conceived by the Holy Spirit, the angel Gabriel appeared to St. Joseph and told him that the Child's name should be called Jesus, meaning "God Saves." According to Jewish law, on the 8th day after his birth a male child was to be circumcised, receive his name and become a full member of God's covenant people. According to the old Roman liturgical calendar, the Feast of the Circumcision of Jesus and the Octave of the Nativity of Our Blessed Lord Jesus Christ are celebrated on January 1st, eight days after Christmas, the same day that He was given His sacred name. For Catholics, Jesus' sacred name is the object of a special devotion symbolized by the monogram "IHS," (sometimes called a Christogram), which is the first three letters of the Greek spelling of His name.

Sts. Fabian and Sebastian, Jan. 20

St. Fabian and St. Sebastian have always been venerated together, their names coupled together in the ancient martyrologies, and in the Litany of Saints.

St. Fabian: This pope (236-250) escaped the persecution of Emperor Maximus Thrax, who had been assassinated and enjoyed peace in the Church under the reigns of succeeding emperors. One of St. Fabian's first acts was to reorganize the clergy of Rome to better serve the increasing flock by dividing the city into seven districts each administered by a deacon. He is also credited with beautifying and enlarging the cemeteries. He ordered paintings to adorn the vaults, and he erected a church above the cemetery of Calixtus.

But St. Fabian's peaceful times came to an end with the ascension of Emperor Decius. He decreed that all Christians were to deny Christ by openly worshipping pagan idols. One of the first to be accused was Pope Fabian who Decius considered a personal enemy. Arrested, he was thrown in prison and died at the hands of his brutal captors. Pope St. Fabian's special interests were the poor and the liturgy. By offering a Mass for someone in spiritual need, the worst poverty--spiritual poverty--can be addressed, and the greatest charity can be practiced in imitation of this great pope.

St. Sebastian: St. Sebastian was a Roman martyr at the beginning of the fourth century. He was an officer of Diocletian's imperial household who, having been found out as a practicing Christian himself, encouraged his brothers in arms subjected to torments on account of their faith.

The Breviary account of the saint reads: "Diocletian tried by every means to turn Sebastian from the faith of Christ. After all efforts had proven fruitless, he ordered him tied to a post and pierced with arrows. When everyone thought him dead, a devout woman named Irene arranged for his burial during the night; finding him still alive, she cared for him in her own house. After his recovery he appeared again before Diocletian and boldly rebuked him for his wickedness. Enraged by the saint's sharp words, the emperor ordered him scourged until he expired. His body was thrown into a sewer." In art St. Sebastian is depicted with the arrows of martyrdom and tied to a tree. He is the patron of archers, athletes, enemies of religion, gardeners, police, soldiers, and a host of other trade workers.

These two saints "were found perfect" as the Epistle mentions, by the testimony they bore of their faith in Jesus Christ.

St. Joseph Men's Group Event

Tuesday, January 23

The next gathering of the St. Joseph Men's Group will be after the 6:00 p.m. Mass and Holy Hour on Tues., Jan. 23. This will be a card-playing event held at the rectory.

The event, as always, starts with saying the Litany of St. Joseph and is followed by a spiritual talk from Canon. The remainder of the evening (until about 9:00 p.m.) is for card playing, cribbage, etc.

Please plan to join the men of St. Patrick's Oratory (ages 21 and over) for all, or a portion, of this event. It will be an evening of good cheer with Canon and other like-minded Catholic men from the Oratory.

Please Bring a snack to share and your own beverages.
