“Stand up”

Those of you who attended the Easter Vigil last Saturday evening will recall that we blessed the Baptismal water to be used in the coming year, and that we renewed our baptismal promises.

By virtue of our Baptism, and particularly by our Confirmation, we are called to stand up for God's truth. We are sent forth like the Apostles. At least by our good example we must offer the gift of the Catholic Faith to all those whom we encounter in this world.

The Sacraments are the driving force for producing this good example. Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Communion and Penance make us radically holy – they make us into beacons of God's truth, even if we never preach a word. In today's Gospel, Jesus Christ speaks not only to the Apostles, but also to each one of us:

“As the Father hath sent me, I also send you.”

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Sunday, April 8, 2018 - Divine Mercy Sunday

Today is The Feast Of Mercy

During the course of Jesus' revelations to Saint Faustina on the Divine Mercy He asked on numerous occasions that a feast day be dedicated to the Divine Mercy and that this feast be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. The liturgical texts of that day, the 2nd Sunday of Easter, concern the institution of the Sacrament of Penance, the Tribunal of the Divine Mercy, and are thus already suited to the request of Our Lord. This Feast, which had already been granted to the nation of Poland and been celebrated within Vatican City, was granted to the Universal Church by Pope John Paul II on the occasion of the canonization of Sr. Faustina on 30 April 2000. In a decree dated 23 May 2000, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments stated that "throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come." These papal acts represent the highest endorsement that the Church can give to a private revelation, an act of papal infallibility proclaiming the certain sanctity of the mystic, and the granting of a universal feast, as requested by Our Lord to St. Faustina.

Concerning the Feast of Mercy Jesus said:

- Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary 300)
- I want the image solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. (Diary 341)
- This Feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of my tender mercies. (Diary 420)
- On one occasion, I heard these words: My daughter, tell the whole world about My Inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. [our emphasis] On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy. (Diary 699)
- Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to our neighbors always and everywhere. You must not shrink from this or try to absolve yourself from it. (Diary 742)
- I want to grant complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy. (Diary 1109)

As you can see the Lord's desire for the Feast includes the solemn, public veneration of the Image of Divine Mercy by the Church, as well as personal acts of veneration and mercy. The great promise for the individual soul is that a devotional act of sacramental penance and Communion will obtain for that soul the plenitude of the divine mercy on the Feast.

*The Cardinal of Krakow, Cardinal Macharski, whose diocese is the center of the spread of the devotion and the sponsor of the Cause of Sr. Faustina, has written that we should use Lent as preparation for the Feast and confess even before Holy Week! So, it is clear that the confessional requirement does not have to be met on the Feast itself. That would be an impossible burden for the clergy if it did. The Communion requirement is easily met that day, however, since it is a day of obligation, being Sunday. We would only need confession again, if received earlier in Lenten or Easter Season, if we were in the state of mortal sin on the Feast.

THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

And the angel being come in, said unto her: Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Who having heard, was troubled at his saying, and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her: Fear not, Mary, for thou has found grace with God. Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and shalt bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name Jesus.... And Mary said to the angel: How shall this be done, because I know not man? And the angel answering, said to her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the most High shall overshadow thee.... And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to thy word. --Luke 2:28-38.

On the Feast of the Annunciation, this year celebrated on April 9 instead of March 25 which occurred on a Lenten Sunday, a day to be spent in joy, we celebrate her in whom the Word was made flesh, in whom the son of God united Himself forever to our humanity in order to enable us to share in His Divinity. Through the mystery of the Incarnation Mary obtained her most wondrous title of the Mother of God. Through it she became the Mother of Christians, for by accepting to become the Mother of the Word Incarnate she was associated with the whole redemptive work of her Son.

In contrast with the curse provoked by Eve, Mary is declared to be "blessed among women." Through her God will give the promised Redeemer to the world. But the Redeemer will not arrive in the way of earthly generations: the power of the Holy Spirit enters the chaste womb of the Virgin, forming the humanity of Christ. Mary's virginity before, during, and after the conception and birth of Christ remains forever. With the assurance that the miraculous birth will not impair her virginity Mary accepts, and the mystery of the union between God and man is accomplished in her by the power of the Holy Spirit. Mary, a daughter of Eve shares not Eve's sin. Where Eve was foolish and sinful, Mary gives the Tree of Life.

ST. PATRICK'S ORATORY

DEAR GUESTS & VISITORS, WELCOME!

CANON ANTOINE BOUCHERON AND THE LAY FAITHFUL WELCOME YOU TO ST. PATRICK'S ORATORY.

WE HOPE THAT YOU WILL BE ABLE TO FULLY APPRECIATE THE BEAUTY OF THE CLASSICAL ROMAN CATHOLIC LITURGY.

According to our liturgical tradition, and the norms in effect:

- Holy Communion is received on the tongue and (if possible for you) kneeling.
- All visitors who are not practicing Catholics in full communion with the Church are kindly asked Not to receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion is a sign of unity and communion of heart and mind with Jesus and with the Church He founded. To communicate, it is essential to have been baptized into the Roman Catholic Church, to embrace all the teachings of the Faith, and to live them without any serious attachment to sin. Thus the soul is in the state of grace, fully alive, and able to receive Jesus truly present in the Sacred Host with His precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

To receive more information about the Extraordinary Form of the Classic Roman Catholic Liturgy, St. Patrick's Oratory, the Institute of Christ the King, or if you desire to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church, please contact Canon Antoine Boucheron, Rector.

Company of the Immaculate St. Michael's Patrol Children's "COIN-BOX" Collection

The Company of the Immaculate and St. Michael's Patrol are continuing their efforts in sponsoring the ongoing "Children's Collection" exclusively at St. Patrick's Oratory for the Institute's African apostolate. This very important collection helps support Canon Fragelli's parish, the Mission of Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, which continues the process of building a Catholic school for 500 children, naming it "St. Francis de Sales School,". While they have started construction in 2017, they were unable to continue building due to a lack of funding, but because of the efforts of our children and the generosity of the people of St. Patrick's Oratory during last Decembers "Children's Collection", the building was able to proceed.

To continue with this worthwhile cause, the Girls and Boys groups will now be sponsoring a "COIN-BOX" collection. During their next group meetings they will be making boxes that people can take home and use to fill with any spare change they care to donate. Any amount is greatly appreciated and 100% of the proceeds go towards building the school.

This collection is designed primarily for all the children of our parish; however, adults are also welcome and encouraged to donate to this cause as well. It is not the amount that we collect that is most important, but rather to teach our children compassion towards our fellow brothers and sisters who are less fortunate in other parts of the world. As Saint Teresa of Calcutta said, "If we worry too much about ourselves, we won't have time for others."

The Coin Boxes will be handed out Today - They will be collected the Sunday following the Ascension
Thank you again for supporting our mission of Living the Truth in Charity!
