INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

“Cast thy care upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee.”

The Church has us call upon the angels and the saints. Our guardian angel is appointed specifically to watch over us and ought to be no stranger to our prayers. The saints are all men and women who once faced many of the same trials and tribulations that we face—they are sympathetic and they enjoy God's favor. Some of them have even been designated by the Church as patron saints and “helpers” with specific human problems. Of course, our Lady is a sort of “universal patron saint.”

So prayer should always be humble. God does not need to hear how wonderful we are. And always pray in the name of the Holy Ghost, Who always knows precisely what will be of greatest benefit to us.

“Cast thy care upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee.”

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Sunday, July 29, 2018 - Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

JULY: DEVOTION TO THE PRECIOUS BLOOD OF OUR LORD

"You were not redeemed with corruptible things as gold or silver... but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb unspotted and undefiled" (1 Pet. 1:18-19).

St. Ignatius of Loyola, July 31

St. Ignatius, was born in 1491, the seventh son of thirteen children. Out of piety, his mother, moments before birth, requested that she be taken out to the stable where Ignatius was born.

Ignatius belonged to the army and while defending a fort at Pamplona his leg was shattered by a cannon ball. Shaken and transformed, his life was open to divine influence. While recuperating from the wound the young courtier read the lives of Christ and the saints, and began to experience a desire to follow Christ. One account even tells us St. Peter appeared to Ignatius during his convalescence and restored him to health.

Full of new zeal, Ignatius became a hermit leaving home and embarking upon a life of poverty and intense corporal and spiritual penance. At Manresa he remained in an all-night vigil before the altar of the Virgin where he hung up his armament, sword and all signs of his military past, having taken a vow of chastity as well.

There are reports that he received many visions including those of the Blessed Virgin, Christ in an elevated host, enlightenment by the Holy Trinity, and he once lay in rapture for seven days on the ground, during his period of self-imposed penances. He was also filled with the desire to help people return to God, and this he did by going out into the streets, preaching and catechizing. Finally, tempered by recognition of the need for advanced learning, he undertook studies at Barcelona, Alcalá and Paris. There he met nine others of like mind, and all together they took vows of poverty and chastity. Formally, they called their little band the Society of Jesus.

Often the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) and their record of great missionary work overshadows the individual persona of St. Ignatius. Depicted in art and in literature as cool, detached, stoical in nature, it is surprising to learn that he often wept; weeping for the poor, for those afflicted by human tragedies, and often for his own sins. His companions often witnessed him in prayer, tears streaming down his face, but exhibiting no bodily emotion or sounds. This mystical gift for tears helps explain why at his first Mass, which occurred 18 months after his ordination on Christmas Day, 1538, in the chapel of the Crib at Santa Maria Maggiore, Rome -- in the interim he was preparing himself by seeking a more intimate and closer union to Christ -- he wept tears and could hardly see the Missal.

August - Month of the Immaculate Heart

O Mary Immaculate, inflame our hearts with one ray of the burning love of thy pure heart

Let them be consumed with love for Jesus and for you, in order that we may merit one day to enjoy your glorious eternity.

The month of August is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart. Since the 16th century Catholic piety has assigned entire months to special devotions. The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The physical heart of Mary is venerated (and not adored as the Sacred Heart of Jesus is) because it is united to her person and is the seat of her love (especially for her divine Son), virtue, and inner life. Such devotion is an incentive to a similar love and virtue.

This devotion has received new emphasis in this century from the visions given to Lucy Dos Santos, oldest of the visionaries of Fatima, in her convent in Tuy, in Spain, in 1925 and 1926. In the visions Our Lady asked for the practice of the Five First Saturdays to help make amends for the offenses committed against her heart by the blasphemies and ingratitude of men. The practice parallels the devotion of the Nine First Fridays in honor of the Sacred Heart.

On October 31, 1942, Pope Pius XII made a solemn Act of Consecration of the Church and the whole world to the Immaculate Heart. Let us remember this devotion year-round, but particularly through the month of August.

Eucharistic Adoration Every Friday

"Certainly, among all devotions after that of receiving the Sacraments, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament holds first place... You must also be aware, that in a quarter of an hour's prayer, spent in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, you will perhaps gain more than in all the other spiritual exercises of the day."

— Saint Alphonsus Liguori

If Mass is at 8:00am Adoration 8:45am-Noon

If Mass is at 6:00pm Adoration 4:00pm-5:45pm

No Adoration on Fridays during the month of August

ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

BISHOP, CONFESSOR, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH, AUGUST 2

St. Alphonsus Liguori (1696–1787) was born near Naples, the eldest of eight children of a noble family. He became a lawyer after receiving doctorates in canon and civil law at the age of 16. For many years he was successful in practicing law, but grew disenchanted with the profession. After losing his first case at the age of 27, and after a time of discernment, he decided to enter the seminary and become a priest. Alphonsus spent the early years of his priesthood ministering to homeless and marginalized youth, and through this work eventually founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, known as the Redemptorists, which aimed to preach in city slums. He was known best for his sermons, especially his ability to convert those who were estranged from the faith, and for his great works in moral and spiritual theology. He was a practical and prudent theologian, avoiding the extremes of being too rigid and legalistic on the one hand, and too lax on the other, despite the fact that he struggled with scrupulosity in his personal life. He suffered much from arthritis in his old age, his neck becoming so bent that his chin left an open sore on his chest. His most famous written works were on the Virgin Mary and the Blessed Sacrament. For his work in moral theology he was declared a Doctor of the Church. He is the patron saint of moral theologians, vocations, arthritis sufferers, and those who struggle with scrupulosity.

St. Patrick's Church Beautification and Restoration

Dear Friends,

As I have mentioned in my previous communique', our community is now established at St. Patrick's. It is important and comforting to understand that we are recognized and that St. Patrick's is our home.

I have promised to keep you updated on the planning and progress of our beautification and restoration of St. Patrick's Church. I am pleased to inform you of our next two phases.

First, we are planning to purchase three more statues for the main altar as shown here. They include: The Sacred Heart, St. Peter and St. Paul and they will of course be painted. They will fit perfectly in the top niches of the altar. The cost of each statue is $2000.

Would you prayerfully consider helping with this project? Any donation is greatly needed and appreciated. If you are able to help, please put your donation into an envelope marked: "STATUES" and place it in the weekly collection basket.

The next phase will be the purchase and installation of the altar rail. This will be the next milestone for the Oratory and another beautiful step in the restoration of our church, our home.

This will be a Capital Campaign for the Oratory and we will need help in making this a reality. In September a Special Donation envelope will be inserted into the bulletin for this purpose.

We need to continue to make St. Patrick's church more beautiful for the greater glory of God!

Step-by-step we have accomplished a great deal – together. Your contributions have made this possible and I am forever grateful.

Your help is still very much needed, and you may continue to count on my priestly dedication.

May God bless you,

Canon Antoine Boucheron

"You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God." 2 Corinthians 9:11
