Let me cure you!

Here is the truth: we have to become good Samaritans, sons of Light. Jesus says it.

If we hesitate to recognize this, there are two reasons:

We do not rely enough on God.

We rely too much on ourselves.

Either we are full of pride, or we despise ourselves, or are paralyzed into inactivity and merely hug the walls. Then we call humility what it is, just cowardice or resignation.

The Christian is really a Good Samaritan when he uses all his strength for someone other than himself.

This is the theology of hope. I am sure the Lord gives me, today, the grace I need. What a freedom! Let's keep hope! It heals us from shyness and fear.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Wednesday, August 15th

8:00am Low Mass w/Organ & 6:00pm High Mass

~ HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION ~

Among the feasts of the Blessed Virgin, that of the dormitio sanctae Mariae--the Dormition (falling asleep)--or her bodily assumption into heaven, was from very early times the most solemn and the most widely observed. In the time of Pope Sergius I, late Seventh century, a solemn procession proceeded to St. Mary Major, where Mass was celebrated. In honor of the Assumption.

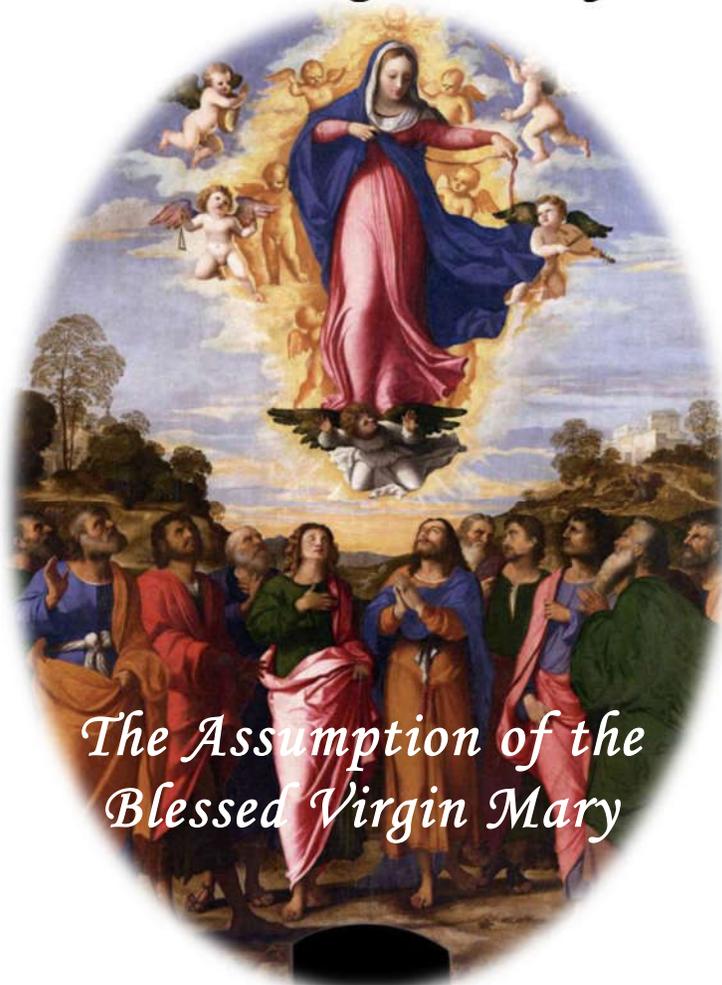

We need to remember that though the divine maternity of the Blessed Virgin Mary may be regarded as the immediate reason of her Assumption into heaven, the first and formal reason of this privilege is to be sought in her Immaculate Conception. It is true that the dignity of the Mother of the Incarnate Word was the primary reason for which God preserved the Immaculate Conception of Mary from all stain of original sin--and in this sense it is rightly attributed as the reason of the bodily resurrection of the Blessed Virgin. But in order to express this truth with perfect accuracy, it is necessary to say that the formal reason for the preservation of her body from corruption was precisely her immunity from all stain of original sin.

"We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." With these words, Pope Pius XII officially and infallibly declared the Assumption of Mary, the Mother of God (theotokos), to be dogma in 1950. In this pronouncement, Pope Pius was simply stating dogmatically what the Church, East and West, had believed for many years.

The Assumption of Mary is not only a participation in her Son's resurrection, but a preview of our future resurrections. As such, the dogma of Mary's Assumption is firmly rooted in the actions and person of Christ--Mary was joined to Him, the source of all Life at her assumption, and so can we be--and in the virtue of Christian hope.

Even though the Assumption was not declared dogma until 1950, this does not lessen the importance of the feast, or render the dogma unbelievable. The reason Pope Pius XII declared the Assumption to be dogma was because it was tradition, not to invent something new.

The excellence of the fruit is always a sign of the quality of the tree which bore it. In the case of St. Joachim, the Immaculate Conception of Mary reflects a splendid glory on the chaste union of her parents. The close relationship which existed between the Savior and St. Joachim confers on the good saint a great dignity, raising him above other saints, so that the honor paid to him is reflected upon Christ Himself in a special manner and upon His Immaculate Mother. They loved him and honored him in this world above all others.

We can glean much from the name of Joachim which means, "the Lord's preparation." St. Joachim is pictured in art as having a list in his hands, his head bent down as he thoroughly checks over that list, one might assume, that contained an inventory of his flocks and the fruits of the earth.

Pope Leo XIII, whose baptismal name was Joachim, raised the feast to the rite of double of the second class. The date of the feast was also moved by the Church from the original March 20 to the day after the Assumption.

St. Patrick's Church Beautification and Restoration

The next phase in beautifying our church is the purchase and installation of three new statues for the high altar. They include: St. Peter, St. Paul and the Sacred Heart.

Would you prayerfully consider helping with this important beautification project?

Any donation, big or small is greatly needed and appreciated.

If you are able to help, please put your donation into an envelope marked: "STATUES" and place it in the weekly collection basket.

Thank You for your continuous support and generosity, Canon Boucheron.

~Important News about the Scrip Program~

After 5 and one half years of dedicated service as our Scrip Coordinator, Shari Reif is passing on the leadership role. We would like to thank Shari for all the hard work in getting this valuable fundraiser started, growing it to the level of success it has become.

For those who don't know, our Scrip program at St. Patrick's was one of the first Scrip programs within the Institute. Shari had to work through much accounting and documentation to get the program going. Thank you Shari for your efforts!

Please welcome our new Scrip Coordinator, Sue Vanevenhoven, who has graciously offered to continue this program. Much of the funding for our past and upcoming church renovations will be supported by the proceeds of this program. This is greatly needed and we hope more folks will participate and/or increase their participation.

If you haven't tried Scrip before, please consider stopping by the Scrip table and purchase a gift card today.

Scrip is available before & after both Sunday Masses

Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary

Consecration to Jesus through Mary is to give oneself entirely to Mary in a self-donation of love, that enables the Mediatrix of all graces to use her full intercessory power to keep a person faithful to his or her baptismal promises to Jesus Christ.

St. Louis de Montfort's method of devotion is known as "Total Consecration," "True Devotion," or "Holy Slavery." This method is a 33 day preparation for total consecration. It consists of a daily meditations from the Bible, the Imitation of Christ, or select writings of St. Louis de Montfort, with a few prayers or litanies that change weekly. It is appropriate for young & old alike.

-Beginning the preparation on August 13th, your consecration will be completed on September 15th, Our Lady of Sorrows.

Please consider the dedication of your lives and families to God. To Jesus through Mary! Now is the time!

Free Booklets are available at both Church entrances.
