THINK OF IT

Calumny, or slander, is the most serious form of evil speech about others.

It implies telling falsehoods about someone in an attempt to injure them. Not only does the sinner attempt to hurt his victim by reducing his public esteem; but he lies, and attributes faults that his victim never even had.

All of these forms of speaking evil about others are wrong. They deprive the victim of one of his most important possessions; his good name and reputation. If you injure a man physically, or take his goods; he can probably recover, or go out and earn new goods. But if you take away his reputation, you essentially cut him off from the world. The injury is more lasting; and much harder for him to heal.

We need to be very careful about what we say about each other. Sometimes it even stems from speaking affectionately about someone who has a few little quirks; or from the well intentioned discussion of somebody's problems when they are not around. Even when our intentions are innocent, we can do great harm. So we must be very circumspect in speaking about others—particularly when they are not around to protect their own interest.

If we are uncharitable, we can expect to be bound into bundles with the other weeds, to be burnt in the fires of hell. We must "bear with one another, and forgive one another," if we expect to be taken into the kingdom of heaven at harvest time.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

NOVEMBER, MONTH OF THE POOR SOULS

During this entire month we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, especially those whom we have known and loved.

CHURCH TEACHING ON PURGATORY

The souls in purgatory died in the mercy of God, this is why they are called holy; however, because they still had attachment to sin at the time of their death, they must undergo a spiritual purification of their souls before they are able to fully love God with their whole heart, mind, and soul for all eternity.

The holy souls are “saved souls” – they will enjoy the reward of heaven – but during their lives they were not the perfect souls that Christ commanded them to be (Mat. 5:48), and for which he provided every grace and means for them to become (2 Pet. 1:3). We are meant to die after living as saints. Those who die in the love God but fall short of holiness due to habitual sinful clinging's must be pure before being admitted to the beatific vision, that is, the vision of God that the saints in heaven enjoy for all eternity.

HOW CAN WE HELP THE POOR SOULS

There are many efficacious ways to assist the poor souls who are now suffering in Purgatory, here are but a few; Pray the Novena to the Holy Souls. Offer up your Holy Communions. Have Masses said for your departed loved ones, especially on the anniversary of his or her death. Pray The Way Of The Cross for Souls in Purgatory. Pray the special Holy Souls Rosary. Obtain indulgences: Indulgences reduce or cancel the temporal punishment that we incur through sin. Give alms: “For almsgiving saves from death and purges away every sin” (Tobit 12:9). Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for their intention. Recite the prayer of St. Gertrude the Great. When passing by a cemetery, pray the short Eternal Rest prayer. This prayer carries a partial indulgence applicable to the poor souls: “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let the perpetual light shine upon them. And may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.”

ST. GERTRUDE THE GREAT, VIRGIN, ABBESS, NOV. 16

St. Gertrude was born in Eiselben in Upper Saxony, about the year 1256. At the age of five, perhaps because she then became an orphan, she was placed in the care of the Benedictine Convent, the nunnery of Helfta. She was instructed by St. Mechtilde and lived a quiet life.

At the age of 25 she was favored with celestial visions. At God's command she recorded her revelations in her book called Communications and Sentiments of Love. The mission she was given was very similar to that of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, which she recognized and in fact foretold. Gertrude's mystical life was lived in the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus; she is pictured with a flaming heart in her hand.

The order to which Gertrude belonged, had, for more than seven centuries, a patristic tradition and the Liturgy was almost exclusively the source of spiritual life. Gertrude conceived devotion to the Sacred Heart not as a separate devotion, but as a deeper intelligence of the great mystery of Christ living again in the Church by means of the Catholic Liturgy. When she spoke of Christ and the mysteries of His adorable life, her words were sweet and her spirit serene and radiant. Jesus revealed to her His Heart as a mystery of grace and love, not as one of sorrow.

On one occasion while listening to the beating of the Heart of Jesus, she asked St. John the Evangelist why he had not made known in his Gospel the treasures of light and mercy revealed to him during his mystic repose on the Savior's Heart at the Last Supper. St. John's response was that this new and touching revelation would be made later when the world had reached the depths of malice, and that in order to rescue it God would employ the last resources of His invincible love.

St. Gertrude wrote a series of prayers with St. Mechtilde, as well as recording her mystical experiences in several books, similar to those of St. Therese of Avila. She was a very intellectual and intelligent woman, well versed in the writings of the Church Fathers; this is the reason why the surname “Great“ is used to describe her. She also helped foster and spread the devotion to the Sacred Heart.

The year of her death is not firmly established; some report it was in 1302, some place it as late as 1334. However, toward the end of her life she received the stigmata. Though never formally canonized, her feast day has been celebrated under the direction of Pope Clement XII since 1677 on November 16. She is patron of the West Indies, and minor patron of portions of Italy and Spain.

The Prayer of St. Gertrude

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

St. Joseph Men's Group Event Christmas Caroling Saturday, December 15

The next gathering of the St. Joseph Men's Group will be for Christmas Caroling. We will be meeting in the rectory after the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Saturday, December 15. After saying the Litany of St. Joseph and having a spiritual talk from Canon, breakfast will be served. After breakfast, there will be practice time for Christmas Carols before we perform our songs for some members of our parish until about 1:00 p.m.

Please plan to join the men of St. Patrick's Oratory (ages 21 and over) for a memorable day of good cheer with Canon and other like-minded Catholics from the Oratory. We will be singing traditional songs to bring the blessed spirit of the Christmas Season to our fellow parishioners.

Kingship of Christ - All Saints Celebration

Thank you to all who came and celebrated these holy feasts together!

It was wonderful and exciting to see so many joining in the festivities of eating, visiting and getting to know your fellow Oratory members. Everyone enjoyed the opportunity to guess all the saints who came to visit us, it was a very warm, educational and fun celebration.

A special thank you goes out to all the children who participated and worked so hard on their saintly garb and to the parents who patiently and continuously teach their precious children about their Catholic faith.

We appreciate all of the volunteers and organizers who donated their time setting up before the event and cleaning up after the celebration along with the Friends of St. Patrick's Oratory who sponsored this social.

Apologetic Book Club

Dear fellow parishioners, starting December 14 an apologetics book club will be starting. The purpose of this book club is to dig into our Church's rich history of apologetics as well as to understand the times we live in. We will cover such topics as arguments for God's existence, historical accuracy of the Gospels, and errors of the past as well as the ones that affect our current times. The group will also watch videos of theologians and philosophers discuss or debate to help see what defending the faith looks like in action. The age group is 18 and older. The group will meet on the second and fourth Friday of each month at the rectory at 6:30PM. The first book that we will read is "College Apologetics" by Fr. Anthony Alexander. Please have the 1st Part: The Origin of Religion, read by the 14th. If you have questions, please email me (Jacob Steiner) at jsteiner12@alumni.wosh.edu.

Company of the Immaculate & St. Michael's Patrol Children's "COIN-BOX" Collection

The Girls and Boys groups are continuing their charitable efforts by again sponsoring the ongoing "Children's Collection" exclusively at St. Patrick's Oratory for the Institute's African apostolate.

This collection supports the efforts in building St. Francis de Sales Catholic school in Africa. Please help in this worthwhile cause by participating in the ongoing "COIN-BOX" collection, knowing that 100% of the proceeds collected go towards the building of the school.

If you haven't received a "Coin-Box", please visit the Maple St. or the side entrance near the scrip table.

Filled Coin-Boxes will be collected on Sunday, December 2

Thank you for supporting our mission of Living the Truth in Charity!

Dear Canon, Dear Friends,

As Christmas points in the horizon, once again your goodness is turned towards us, our Mission. We are very touched. We are very thankful. We pray God and the Blessed Mother for you.

God has blessed us with a beautiful catholic school last year, and this year with a little boarding school. How much good we could do to these children, if we could associate in their little hearts the Faith with the idea of God's goodness by giving them a little gift! So this is what we ask of you this year. To help us give all these children a little gift this Christmas. And be assured: for most of them it will be the ONLY gift they will receive this Christmas. Think of their joy and, I am sure, that will be your reward.

With anticipated gratitude and of our prayers.

God bless you always.

Cn. Fragelli

PS. This is a recent picture. Last year we had 80 students. This year we have 200. Blessed be God !
