Be ready

At the end of the liturgical year the Church asks us to reflect on the Second Coming so that we are ready!

Christ, the end of the world, and the general judgment, these are sobering thoughts. Their purpose is to motivate us to fidelity, to keep the Ten Commandments, to pray daily - especially to our Blessed Mother, to practice love of God and love of neighbor, and to resist temptation which we are all subject to. It is absolutely certain that these things will happen - sooner or later. Jesus predicted the destruction of Jerusalem - and it happened. We must always be prepared.

The Bible often divides men into the good and the bad, the wise and the foolish. The foolish are the ones who ignore God and His warnings. The wise are the ones who hear the word of God and keep it. They will be saved. Remember the parable of the ten virgins - five wise and five foolish.

Let us pray for the grace to persevere in the vast army of those who hear the word of God and keep it. And, above all, let us not be anxious; let us be ready.

Death and Particular or Individual Judgment

Excerpts from Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, OP

As the end of the Church's liturgical cycle approaches, the Church emphasizes key points on the four last things; death, judgment, heaven and hell. The existence of both the individual judgment and general judgment are founded on Scripture and Tradition.

The analogy between divine judgment and that of human justice brings with it resemblances, but also differences. Judgment before a human tribunal involves three steps: examination of the case, pronouncement of the sentence, and the execution of that sentence. In the divine judgment the examination of the case is instantaneous, because it needs neither the testimony of witnesses, for or against, nor the least discussion. God knows by immediate intuition, and at the moment of separation the soul knows itself without medium. It is enlightened on all its merits and demerits. It sees its state without possibility of error, sees all that it has thought, desired, said, and done, both in good and in evil. It sees all the good it has omitted. Memory and conscience penetrate its entire moral and spiritual life, even to the minutest details. Only then can it see clearly all that was involved in its particular vocation.

The pronouncement of the sentence is also instantaneous. It does not come by a voice to be heard by the ear, but in a manner entirely spiritual. The soul sees how God judges, and conscience makes this judgment definitive. All this takes place at the first instant of separation. When it is true to say of a person that he is dead, it is also true to say that he is judged.

The execution of the sentence is also immediate. Omnipotence accomplishes at once the order of divine justice, and on the part of the soul merit and demerit are, as St. Thomas says like lightness and heaviness in bodies. Where there are no obstacles, heavy bodies fall, light bodies rise. Thus separated souls go without delay, either to the recompense due to their merit (unless perhaps they have to undergo a temporary punishment in purgatory), or to the eternal punishment due to their demerits.

Blessed are those who take their purgatory on Earth, by generous acceptance of daily trials. The multiple sacrifices of daily life purify and perfect their love, and by this love they will be judged.

A very sincere thanks go out to the generous members of the Confraternity of Christian Mothers who initiated the plan and who worked to donate the money to the Restoration Project so that a beautiful statue of St. Anne can be installed in the church. As patroness of pregnant and laboring mothers, grandmothers, and teachers, the image of St. Anne is sure to inspire much devotion to this marvelous and powerful saint in heaven, here at St. Patrick's Oratory.

I am especially appreciative of this wonderful act of charity. Surely this special grandmother will help watch over all who gather at her feet in devotion, and protect the parish as well. Sincerely grateful, Canon Antoine Boucheron.

St. Joseph Men's Group Event - Christmas Caroling

Saturday, December 15

The next gathering of the St. Joseph Men's Group will be for Christmas Caroling. We will be meeting in the rectory after the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Saturday, December 15. After saying the Litany of St. Joseph and having a spiritual talk from Canon, breakfast will be served. After breakfast, there will be practice time for Christmas Carols. We will be singing traditional songs to bring the blessed spirit of the Christmas Season to our fellow parishioners as we perform at the Cookie Walk in O'Brien hall until about 1p.m.

Please plan to join the men of St. Patrick's Oratory (ages 21 and over) for a memorable day of good cheer with Canon and other like-minded Catholic men from the Oratory.

Saturday, December 8th Feast of the Immaculate Conception

~Holy Day of Obligation~

9:00 a.m. High Mass

A Novena of Preparation is prayed from November 29 to December 7, after every Holy Mass. You are invited to join either in church or at home. A plenary indulgence can be gained under the usual conditions by all those who attend Holy Mass at an Institute's apostolate.

Novena to the Immaculate Conception

November 29 - December 7

O most holy Virgin who wast pleasing to God and didst become His Mother. Immaculate in your body, in your soul, in your faith and in your love, we beseech thee to look graciously upon the wretched who implore thy powerful protection. The wicked serpent, against whom the primal curse was hurled, continues none the less to wage war and to lay snares for the unhappy children of Eve. Ah, do thou, our blessed Mother, our Queen and Advocate, who from the first instant of thy conception didst crush the head of our enemy, receive the prayers that we unite single-heartedly to thine and conjure thee to offer at the throne of God, that we may never fall into the snares that are laid for us, in such wise that we may all come to the haven of salvation; and in the midst of so many dangers may holy Church and the fellowship of Christians everywhere sing once more the hymn of deliverance, victory and peace. Amen.

Thou art all fair, O Mary. And the original stain is not in thee. Thou art the glory of Jerusalem. Thou art the joy of Israel. Thou art the honour of our people. Thou art the advocate of sinners. O Mary, virgin most prudent, mother most tender, pray for us. Intercede for us with Jesus Christ Our Lord.

V. In thy conception, O Virgin, thou wast immaculate.
R. Pray for us to the Father, Whose Son thou didst bring forth.

Let us pray.

O God who, by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin, didst make her a worthy habitation for Thy Son, and didst, by His foreseen death, preserve her from all stain of sin; grant we beseech Thee, that through her intercession we may be cleansed from sin and come with pure hearts to Thee. Through the same Christ Our Lord. (Amen.)
