INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

To err is human, to forgive is divine.

Every time we pray the Our Father we ask for forgiveness: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." That "as" is very important. We should not be like the heartless servant in today's parable.

Our forgiveness of our neighbor does not necessarily mean that God forgives him. Surely he must repent for that to happen. But it means that God will forgive us when we pray, "Forgive us our trespasses."

Spiritual maturity or holiness means that we become more like God, and by His grace we are never closer to Him than when we forgive those who have injured us. Even the pagan orator Cicero wrote, before the time of Christ, "There is nothing that makes a man more like God than mercy."

To err is human, to forgive is divine.

Every one of us should be a copy of Jesus. How shall I be such if I do not try to imitate the gentleness of Jesus' heart? O Lord, make me gentle, affable, and agreeable, not to attract the affection of human beings, but to conquer their souls for you!

THE FOUR CROWNED MARTYRS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8 - 8:00A.M. MASS

According to tradition the Four Crowned Martyrs (d. 305 A.D.) were renowned sculptors living in what is today Austria-Hungary. They were commissioned by Roman Emperor Diocletian to make several sculptures; however, when he requested a sculpture of the pagan god Aesculapius for a heathen temple, they refused to carve it. Their refusal exposed them as Christians during Diocletian's fierce persecution against Christianity. The men refused to sacrifice to the pagan gods to save their lives, and were condemned to death by being placed alive in lead caskets and cast into a river. The Four Crowned Martyrs are closely associated with an earlier group of four soldiers, also killed during the persecutions of Diocletian two years before, who died by being beaten to death with leaden clubs after refusing to sacrifice to the god Aesculapius. Because their names were originally unknown, they were called the Four Crowned Martyrs. Their relics were first venerated in the Roman catacombs before a basilica was erected in their honor on Caelian Hill. The two groups of martyrs, both called the Four Crowned Martyrs until their names were afterward discovered, are honored together on November 8th.

Advent 2019

St. Patrick's Oratory Children's Collection November 10 - January 5 for Gabon, Africa

This coming Advent the children of our parish have the great opportunity to continue to help students at the St. Francis De Sales School in Gabon, Africa. The school, under the direction of Canon Fragelli of the Institute of Christ the King, is widely renowned for providing its students with a solid Catholic formation. As such, enrollment is steadily increasing and thanks to your generous help in the past a secondary school was recently built and just opened this October! The school which originally anticipated an enrollment of 300 students is now looking at 400!

Please join us in helping our brothers and sisters in Africa this Advent by picking up a coin box located at both entrances. The collection will start on Sunday, Nov. 10 and will run until Jan. 5. Let us continue to help those who are trying so hard to spread the Catholic faith. May God reward you in your generosity!

November Month of the Holy Souls

St. Patrick's Oratory would like to remember the members of the Oratory and their family members who have passed away during the past 12 months during November, the month of the holy souls.

Submit their name and date they passed away in an envelope marked "In Loving Memory" in the collection basket and they will be remembered in a prayer for the dead at each Mass.

Grave Site Blessing

Again this year during the month of November, I will gladly bless the graves of your family or friends in the Northeast Wisconsin area. If you are interested in having this done, please e-mail canon.boucheron@institute-christ-king.org or write me a note with the name of the deceased person and the location of the grave (cemetery name, address, also the plot number) and please hand it to me. Canon Boucheron

Pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory throughout the month of November

The Church remembers in her prayers, throughout the month of November, all of the faithfully departed who have still to be purified in Purgatory. The Church also invites the faithful to pray for the dead especially those of our family. Please don't forget to also pray for the deceased priests & bishops. We pray for them all because we confidently believe that the prayers at the altar are most profitable for them and the most effective means of releasing the souls of the faithful departed from their torments in Purgatory.

A Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

O Good Jesus, Whose loving Heart was ever troubled by the sorrows of others, look with pity on the souls of our dear ones in Purgatory. O Thou who didst "love Thine own," hear our cry for mercy, and grant that those whom Thou hast called from our homes and hearts may soon enjoy everlasting rest in the home of Thy love in Heaven. Amen.

V. Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

NOVEMBER 1-8: Visit the Cemetery, gain a plenary indulgence!

From November 1st through November 8th, a plenary indulgence (applicable only to the Poor Souls) is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray there, even if only mentally, for the departed. Indulgence granted under ordinary conditions.
