INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Let all be recorded.

It is always tempting to think that our Lord worked His miracles to demonstrate His power and His divinity -- and, of course, to some extent He did. But perhaps more to the point, our Lord worked His miracles, and did virtually everything that He did on Earth out of charity -- that pure, unselfish love of God for His creatures, which we are expected not only to return to God, but also to share with our neighbors for the love of God.

Jesus had compassion on Jairus, and on the widow at Naim, and on Martha and Mary of Bethany, and on every person whom He healed -- but even that compassion pales when compared with the compassion He must have felt that compelled Him to become one of us and to die for our sins on the Cross. All of these things are for our charity.

The ever practical Saint Paul -- who spoke so eloquently about faith, hope, and charity to the Corinthians -- suggests one more thing to us today: it is for us imitate Saint Paul, and ultimately to imitate our Lord Himself, removing ourselves from earthly attachments and directing our attentions and our actions toward our "citizenship in heaven" -- otherwise, we make ourselves "enemies of the Cross of Christ." It is not a coincidence that Paul tells us that "Jesus Christ ... will refashion the body of our lowliness, conforming it to the body of His glory...." Paul is talking about our own resurrection.

We know that on the last day all will rise "in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet" -- but we also know that "those who have done good shall come forth unto resurrection of life; but those who have done evil unto resurrection of judgement." Saint Paul is admonishing us today, not to be enemies, but to be the allies of Christ on the Cross.

"The hope of a blessed resurrection has shone upon us, that we, afflicted by the certainty of death, may be consoled by the promise of future immortality." All of these things are for our faith, for our hope, and for our charity; and ultimately, they are for our salvation...our record in the Book of Life.

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary

Mass at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, November 19

Elizabeth, in her short life, manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she has become the patroness of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order. The daughter of the King of Hungary, Elizabeth chose a life of penance and asceticism when a life of leisure and luxury could easily have been hers. This choice endeared her in the hearts of the common people throughout Europe.

At the age of 14, Elizabeth was married to Louis of Thuringia, whom she deeply loved. She bore three children. Under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and sick. Seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing. Daily she would take bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land who came to her gate.

After six years of marriage, her husband died in the Crusades, and Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family looked upon her as squandering the royal purse, and mistreated her, finally throwing her out of the palace. The return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne.

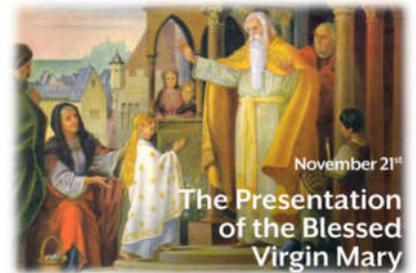

In 1228, Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order, spending the remaining few years of her life caring for the poor in a hospital which she founded in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi. Elizabeth's health declined, and she died before her 24th birthday in 1231. Her great popularity resulted in her canonization four years later.

She is the Patron Saint of: Bakers, Catholic Charities, Secular Franciscan Order. Saint Elizabeth of Hungary, Pray for us.

Presentation of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary

Mass at 8:00 a.m. Thursday, November 21

According to tradition, the Blessed Virgin Mary was consecrated to God as a young child; when she reached three years of age her holy parents, St. Anne and St. Joachim, presented her before God in the Jerusalem temple where she was to be educated and raised. This dedication was a result of a promise St. Anne made to God while she suffered from many years of infertility. The liturgical celebration honoring this event appeared in the East much earlier than it did in the West. In the late Middle Ages it was promoted as a feast day for the universal Church.

November Infant King Novena

"The more you honor Me, the more I will bless you."

November is dedicated to the Poor Souls in Purgatory. As we meditate upon the role of Purgatory - the purification of the soul - let us turn to the pure heart of the Infant King. May we seek a pure heart like His in this life and pray for the relief of those souls who still need to make reparation for past offenses against Our Lord.

As we begin this Novena on the 17th through the 25th of November, let us pray to the Infant King for His Divine mercy upon the poor souls in Purgatory.

NOVENA PRAYER TO OUR INFANT KING

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain Thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.
