INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Rejoice... and Keep Up Your Courage!

The miracle of the loaves and fishes foreshadows Holy Thursday when Jesus will institute the Mass and the Blessed Sacrament of His real presence under the appearances of bread and wine.

That is what happens during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The Mass is the heart and soul of Catholicism. Without the Mass there is no Catholic Church. It is the reason why our churches are built in such a way that the main focus is on the altar where the Mass is celebrated.

All public attendance at Masses is suspended but Masses are not prohibited. Masses are still offered privately at St. Patrick's. Behind these closed doors, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for you for the greater glory of God. Make what is called a "Spiritual Communion" by desiring to receive Him if it was possible.

Hopefully soon, we will gather again as a family at the foot of the Blessed Sacrament.

Let me know if I can do anything for you. God bless you all.

All together but everyone at home. Have a good Lent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

LET US BE CONTAGIOUS SAINTS

We are in the midst of Lent and simultaneously in the midst of a global health crisis. Many have lost all faith in our political and religious leaders, and they find themselves angry, frustrated, and afraid. Most of all, many are filled with the anxiety born of uncertainty. Will I lose my job? How long will this last? Will I or those I love be infected? How long will we be cut off from the healing grace of the sacraments? These and other questions plague us.

And yet we must remember that with every crisis there is a call. It is a call to conversion, a call to repentance. For God does not desire our comfort nearly as much as He desires our conversion. He does not desire us to have easy lives as much as He desires us with broken hearts to turn back to Him. He desires our maturity, our growth in sanctity, our spiritual development far more than He desires our temporal ease.

Even more, He desires us to forsake our sins and wickedness—and oh, how the world is filled with wickedness. We have committed every imaginable evil and shaken our fist in God's face personally and collectively for decades. We are so numb to this reality that we scarcely realize it. But it is true. We have forsaken the good God who has given us everything and shamelessly broken all of His commandments.

This is a trying time, but it is also an opportunity. It is an opportunity to examine our lives, our consciences, and our priorities. It is a chance to look heavenward and call out to God with all our hearts. Like the disciples, we must wake the power of our Master, Jesus Christ, with our prayers. He alone can calm our hearts, heal us, and save us, now and always.

In abandoning our illusions of control and surrendering ourselves to His mercy, we find peace.

God bless you all!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

The Apostolic Penitentiary just released new directives for a plenary indulgence that you can gain during this time of the coronavirus pandemic (N.B. this is a translation from the original Italian):

A Plenary Indulgence is granted to the faithful affected by coronavirus, or subjected to quarantine by order of the health authority in hospitals or in their own homes if, with a soul detached from any sin, they spiritually unite through the media to the celebration of the Holy Mass, the recitation of the Holy Rosary, the pious practice of the Via Crucis or other forms of devotion, or if at least they will recite the Creed, the Our Father, and a pious invocation to the Blessed Virgin Mary, offering this proof in a spirit of faith in God and charity towards our brothers and sisters, with the will to fulfill the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer according to the intentions of the Holy Father), as soon as it is possible for them.

Furthermore, the Apostolic Penitentiary willingly grants a Plenary Indulgence under the same conditions on the occasion of the current world epidemic, even to those faithful who offer a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, or Eucharistic adoration, or the reading of the Holy Scriptures for at least half an hour, or the recitation of the Holy Rosary, or the pious exercise of the Via Crucis, or the recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, to implore from Almighty God the cessation of the epidemic, relief for those who are afflicted, and the eternal salvation of the many whom the Lord has called to himself.

One way you can unite yourself spiritually to the Holy Mass is through our online apostolate, LiveMass, which livestreams the Holy Mass daily from several of our locations. +

SUNDAY, MARCH 22, 2020 - FOURTH "LAETARE" SUNDAY OF LENT

Prayers said during Mass "In a time of pestilence"

"We're Going to Defeat the Virus"

The time now is not for cowardice, but for courage; not for selfishness, but to help; not for pettiness, but for heroism! Let us be strong. There could be worse things than dying from the epidemic--not living up to the test and thus losing our souls.

As our elders cried, in the dark hours, in the face of the enemy: "Rather die than fail"

Together let us face the virus and, if God willing, we will defeat it.
