INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

I am the Good Shepherd

Our life is fully secure in the hands of Jesus and the Father, who are a single thing: a unique love, a unique mercy, revealed once and for all in the sacrifice of the Cross.

Because of this we are no longer afraid: our life is now saved from perdition. Nothing and no one can take us from the hands of Jesus, because nothing and no one can overcome His love. Jesus' love is invincible."

Jesus' closeness and protection for His sheep will also lead us to a great hope in our life and our efforts to please God.

The virtue of hope assures us that God governs us with His all-powerful Providence and that He gives us all the means we need. Hope makes us aware of our Lord's constant good will towards mankind, towards you and me.

He is always ready to hear us, because He never tires of listening. He is interested in our joys, our successes, our love, and also in our worries, our suffering and our failures. So do not hope in Him only when you realize you are weak. Call upon your heavenly Father in good times and in bad, taking refuge in His merciful protection. And our conviction that we are nothing (it doesn't take a high degree of humility to recognize the truth that we are nothing but a row of zeros) will turn into irresistible strength, because Christ will be the one to the left of these zeros, converting them into an immeasurable figure!

'The Lord is my strength and my refuge; whom shall I fear?'

“Our meditation on the human and spiritual journey of Saint Joseph invites us to ponder his vocation in all its richness, and to see him as a constant role model for all those who have devoted their lives to Christ in the Priesthood, in the consecrated life or in different forms of lay engagement.” — Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament.

I love Thee above all things and I desire Thee in my soul.

Since I cannot now receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though Thou wert already there, I embrace Thee and unite myself wholly to Thee; permit not that I should ever be separated from Thee. Amen.

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE PRIESTHOOD

Virgin Mary, Mother of Christ-Priest, Mother of all the priests of the whole world, you have a particular love for priests, because they are the living images of your unique Son.

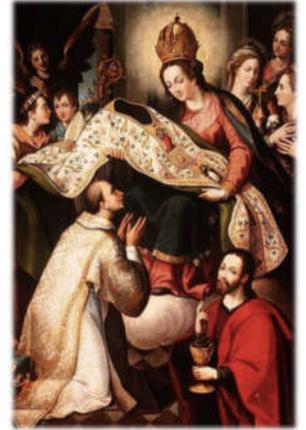

You helped Jesus throughout your life on earth, and you help him still in Heaven.

We implore you: Pray for priests!

“Pray to the Father that he send laborers to the harvest”

Pray that we always have priests, who will give us the Sacraments, explain to us Christ's Gospel, and teach us to become true children of God!

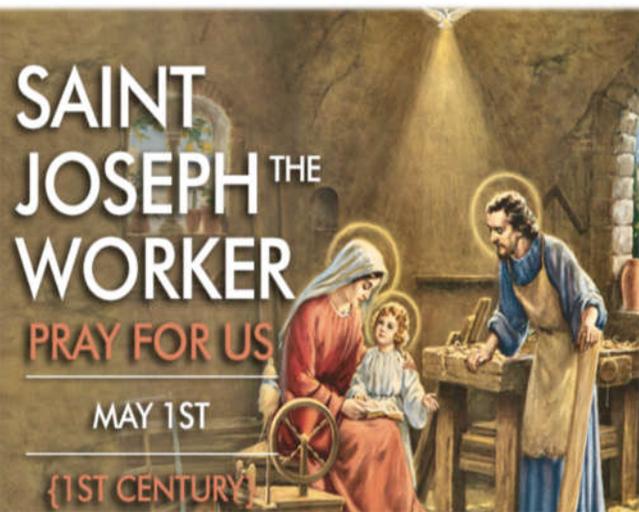

Virgin Mary, ask God yourself for the priests of whom we have such need; and since your Heart as such power over him, Obtain for us, O Mary, priests that are saints! Amen!

O LORD, SEND US PRIESTS! O LORD, SEND US HOLY PRIESTS! O LORD, SEND US MANY HOLY PRIESTS & RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS!

St. Joseph (1st c.) was born in Bethlehem in Judea and later settled in Nazareth. By Divine command he became spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and adoptive father to God Incarnate. We know from Scripture and Tradition that St. Joseph was a virtuous man and a carpenter by trade. It was he who was entrusted with the great mission to guard, protect, and provide for the temporal needs of God's most precious gifts, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Child Jesus, in the role of spouse and father within the Holy Family. St. Joseph's mission continues from heaven as the patron saint of the Catholic Church. He is also the patron of many causes including fathers, laborers, and families. His feast days are: St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary on March 19th, and St. Joseph the Worker on May 1st. Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of St. Joseph the Worker in 1955 to emphasize the dignity, meaning, and value of human work in the eyes of God, and to give all laborers a model of virtue as well as a heavenly intercessor and protector.
