Love is Concrete

Jesus gave His life to redeem us and He did not wait for our worthiness to love us. It is His love that made us worthy. His grace is given to us to make us new creatures in God.

God's wrath is concrete too. It never admits anything that can harm us; it goes as far as death to help us return to the love of God.

If we knew how much God loves us, we would no longer be afraid or ashamed when thinking of His wrath. Our life is not long enough to grasp and understand the fullness of this reality. This is why Jesus makes His disciples Apostles. Very often we prefer not to become disciples out of fear of having to become apostles. We can accept everything, except being called by Christ! "Why me and not my neighbor? Incredible! It always happens to the same people!"

What a pity it is to have such thoughts! Because when Jesus calls someone, it means He loves him and He gives him the grace to perform the mission that has been entrusted!

Only Christ can give freely and He gives himself freely. And He does it, of course, with such a love that it compels us to act.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

St. Anne

Mother of the Virgin, Grandmother of the Savior

Monday, July 26 - 6:30 a.m. Mass

St. Anne was a human being, conceived and born, living and dying as every normal human does. But it is through her bond with her daughter, the Blessed Virgin, and with her Grandson, the Savior of the World, that is the reason for the reverence with which she is held throughout the Christian world. Her name in Hebrew means "grace."

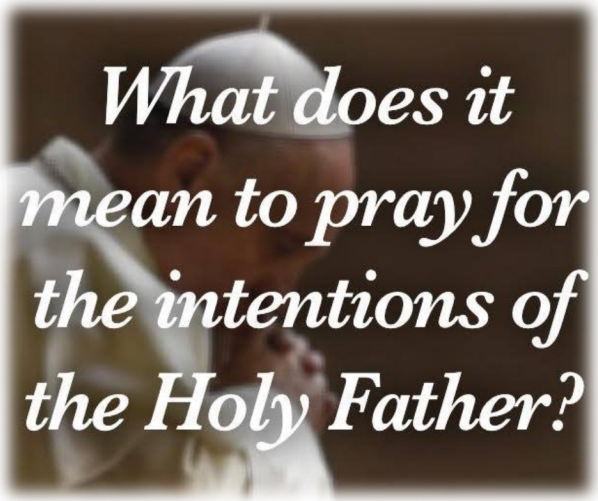
There is little that sets her apart from ordinary people as with other honored saints; she did not suffer martyrdom or lead a life of great penance or sacrifice; she did not withdraw from the world or take vows of poverty, chastity, or obedience. She was a daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother in the natural sense under favorable conditions because her parents and husband were people of substantial means, holding valuable lands and flocks. St. Anne, through the sanctification of her normal everyday life proves that sanctification is possible in other everyday lives.

Even though she is not mentioned as being present at the Nativity, surely as the grandmother-to-be, she would have been anxious about her daughter and the travels the Holy Family undertook at such a delicate time, and eager to hear the news of the birth. (Imagine the wonderment and then the submission that followed when she learned of her daughter's role as Mother of the Messiah!) And how did she hear of the news of the birth of the Christ Child -- through the message of an angel or did she notice the light shining from the Star of the East? Did she learn of the slaughter of the Innocents? What about the intense anxiety she must have suffered when her daughter and Grandson were absent during the long Flight into Egypt? What a moment it must have been when the Holy Family returned to Nazareth and she finally held the Christ Child in her loving arms!

Just as in the case of many widowed grandmothers, her life must have centered around her child and Grandchild. Was it she who helped teach Him how to read? Did He spend time at His grandmother's? We have little in Holy Scripture about this but oral tradition and artistic representations of her life give us a good clue.

Tradition says her relics were brought to southern France by St. Lazarus. The relic of her head is kept in a church in the German Rhineland. She is patroness of Brittany where her miraculous picture is venerated at Notre Dame D'Auray. She is also the principle patroness of Quebec with a shrine at de Beaupre.

Who better to understand the anguish and petitions of daughters, wives, mothers, and grandmothers? St. Anne, pray for us.



What, precisely, does it mean to pray for the intentions of the Holy Father?

Prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father is very different from praying for the Holy Father himself as we do at Mass.

According to the Church's official decree on indulgences, the Pope's intentions always includes the following objects:

1. The progress of the Faith and the triumph of the Church.
2. Peace and union among Christian Princes and Rulers
3. The conversion of sinners.
4. The uprooting of heresy.

It is very good for you to have these specific intentions in mind when you pray for the Holy Father's intentions. Even if you do not think of them specifically, however, your prayer is still valid, as they are included in the intention of our Holy Mother the Church. Of course the Pope may have other personal intentions, and these can form part of your prayer as well, or not, but this is not necessary.
