Oratory Clergy

The Very Reverend Msgr. R. Michael Schmitz
Vicar General

The Reverend Canon Matthew Talarico
Provincial Superior

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest

"He said to him, 'Ephpheta,' which is 'be thou opened.'"

Our Lord was able to make the man in today's Gospel speak correctly—to speak rightly. That may have been a miracle on the material level, but it also should move us to work the same "miracle" at the moral level.

We must learn to "speak correctly"; neither bearing false witness against our neighbor, nor even telling the truth to hurt him. Certainly, we must not rob him, nor hurt him bodily by falsifying information to which he has a right.

And finally, we ought to seek a measure of Christian humility and perfection in telling the truth—for in telling the truth we share in God's perfection and unite ourselves to His Son, whom we know to be Truth Himself.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

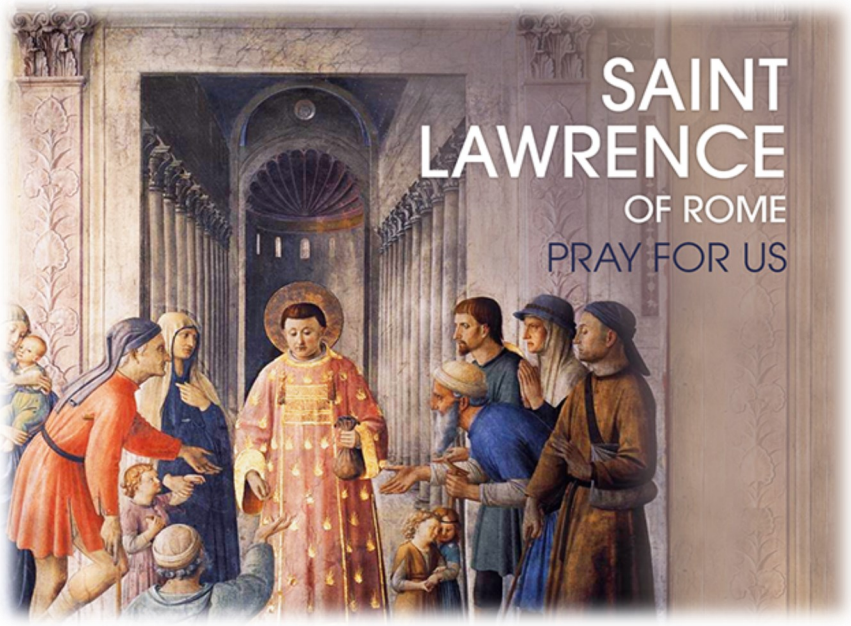
St. Lawrence of Rome

Tuesday, August 10 - 6:00 p.m. Mass



St. Lawrence of Rome (d. 258 A.D.) was likely a Spaniard by birth who lived in Rome while Christianity was outlawed under pain of death. He was appointed by Pope St. Sixtus II as archdeacon over the seven deacons of Rome, and held the sacred duty of tending to the Church's wealth and distributing alms to the poor. After Pope St. Sixtus II was beheaded by Roman Emperor Valerian, along with the six other deacons, Lawrence was left as the highest-ranking clergy in Rome. He was ordered by the Roman authorities to appear before the tribunal—a summons to his execution—along with the treasures of the Church that were in his possession. St. Lawrence then quickly distributed the Church's wealth to the poor so that the government could not confiscate it. On the appointed day, August 10th, Lawrence responded to the summons by bringing with him a multitude of the poor and crippled of Rome; these he proclaimed to be the true treasure of the Church. This angered the authorities so greatly that Lawrence was ordered to be burned alive on a gridiron. He was bound to the metal grate and slowly roasted to death over hot coals. During his torture Lawrence famously mocked his torturers by saying, "I am done on this side, turn me over." St. Lawrence is the patron saint of many causes including cooks, chefs, comedians, deacons, librarians, students, and the poor. His feast day is August 10th.
