From our Chaplain, Canon James Hoogerwerf

Dear faithful,

It is a great joy for me as a new priest to begin my first assignment. I am most thankful to Fr. Mens, pastor of St. Joseph Church and you, dear faithful, of this parish for permitting me to sing a first Mass here in Hammond. I am grateful as well to my superiors in the Institute of Christ the King: Monsignor Gilles Wach, prior general and Canon Matthew Talarico, provincial superior.

I was ordained a priest in Florence just a few months ago, on July 4th after having completed my studies at St. Philip Neri International Seminary, the motherhouse of the Institute of Christ the King. During that time I served as well in Rome, Brussels and Limerick.

I look forward to serving you each Sunday and Holy Day and getting to know each of you. My duties as provincial bursar, may from time to time force to be away, but the good canons in Chicago will always be available. Do not hesitate to contact me at the provincial headquarters for house blessings or sick calls.

May God bless you!

Canon James Hoogerwerf
